Many Who Withdrew Funds Now Returning Money—Rumor Caused by Baseless Rumor

What Newark Bankers Say.

We, the undersigned, have made careful inquiry into the condition of The Licking County Bank Company, and find it to be in a clean and business-like shape. We desire to assure the public that the bank is perfectly safe and that there is no ground in fact for the rumors which have been circulated as to its condition.

BANK'S STATEMENT.

The following statement was issued by the Licking Bank Friday afternoon:

"The Licking County Bank and Trust company is perfectly solvent and abundantly able to pay every dollar it owes.

"All rumors to the contrary are without foundation and absolutely untrue.

"We have enough assets to pay every depositor every dollar and have $240,000.00 besides.

"The bank has never been in better shape to serve its patrons and the general public. The slight run on the bank caused by absolutely baseless rumors has been promptly met.

"We believe that those of our patrons who were deceived by these stories will realize the injustice done by their hasty withdrawal and will return to their regular place of business.

"Many have already done so, prompted by a sense of justice to an institution, which has always dealt with them fairly and honestly."

The flurry at the Licking County Bank caused by the malicious and unfounded reports reflecting upon its stability is about over and the Licking is emerging from the storm stronger than ever.

When the reports were started that there was trouble at the bank and as these rumors were increased in size as they passed from one person to another, a number of people hurried to the bank and withdrew their funds. However, the Licking was prepared for all comers and the great stacks of gold and silver and currency remaining in the bank after Thursday's "run" testified to the solidity of the institution.

It is officially announced that the Licking is absolutely sound and that the bank can pay every dollar owing to depositors and have more than $240,000 left.

The leading men of the city, including bankers in the other institutions, have done much to assume the public of the stability of the Licking. All who have applied have received their money promptly, and there is plenty of it left, but now that the excitement has subsided many who withdrew their funds have returned the money to the Licking bank.

It is said that a man who wanted to renew his obligation to the bank but was refused further accommodation, started the rumor that the bank was unsafe. This spread rapidly and grew as it spread. Various rumors were set afloat that had not the semblance of truth and people not waiting to verify the reports, hurried to the bank and got their money.

and the money was there for them. There is no stronger bank in town than the Licking. As its motto says, it is "Solid as a Rock," and the way it has handled the present flurry is an evidence of its strength.

NOT CONVINCED

Is Lieutenant Lawason That Negro Troops Were Guilty.

Washington, March 29.—Lieutenant G. C. Lawason of Company B, Twenty-fifth infantry, was again on the stand in the Brownsville investigation before the senate committee on military affairs. He told Senator Warner that he had been of the opinion that Fort Brown was attacked by citizens, but the next morning when he was shown cartridges picked up by Captain Macklin in the streets of the town he was sure the shooting had been done by soldiers. Later Senator Foraker asked the witness if he believed now that the shooting was done by the negro soldiers, and Lieutenant Lawason replied: "I think, sir, that it should have been discovered by this time who did the shooting. There has been no direct evidence to fix it on these men, and in view of the testimony here I can not say that I think the negro troops were guilty."

MANY KILLED IN TORNADO SAYS REPORT

(Bulletin.)

Fort Worth, Tex., March 29.—Heavy loss of life in a tornado at Marietta and Ross, I. T., is reported today. It is impossible to confirm the report as all wires are down. Marietta has 1,000 people, and Ross 1,500. Both towns are reported wrecked.

CHILD'S BODY FOUND TODAY.

Covington, Ky. March 29.—The body of Nolan Cummins, aged four, who disappeared Saturday and was believed to have been kidnapped was found today, floating in the river. The child was last seen playing near where the body was found.

1,000 PEASANTS ARE KILLED AND MANY WOUNDED

Budapest, March 29.—The terrible slaughter of the peasants has been followed by the bombardment of the rebellious villages under government orders. In a single day it is reported nearly 1,000 peasants were killed and hundreds wounded. Several villages were completely destroyed.

Roumania is practically in a state of siege. Anarchy is aimed at. Clashes between the troops and peasants are frequent, and the throne is threatened. In some instances the troops refused to fire on the peasants but turned the guns on the officers and killed them.

TRAINMEN FIRM.

Will Refuse to Arbitrate the Wage Scale With Anyone.

Chicago, March 29.—The only way in which a strike of trainmen on the western railroads can be averted is for the officials of the roads concerned to make terms with the men. This is the ultimatum issued by the representatives of the two unions involved in the difficulty, after a meeting had been held to consider the action of the railroads in asking the federal government to intervene and endeavor to bring about a settlement by mediation, along the lines provided by the Erdmann act. A resolution was passed refusing to arbitrate the wage scale question with anybody. The general managers of the railroads for the first time admit that the situation is grave. The crisis was intensified by the fact that no compromise had been effected with the representatives of the 15,000 locomotive firemen who are here negotiating for higher wages and an eight-hour day.

Washington, March 29.—Chairman Martin T. Knapp of the interstate commerce commission, and Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, left here for Chicago, where they will hold a conference with representatives of the conductors and trainmen and officials of western railroads entering Chicago, in regard to the dispute over the question of wages, which threatens to result in a disastrous strike unless a satisfactory adjustment is effected. Chairman Knapp said that the visit of himself and Mr. Neill will be simply in the direction of the mediation and conciliation.

RAILWAY STRIKE ON WESTERN ROADS MAY BE AVERTED

LEADERS SAY THEY WANT TO GIVE GOVERNMENT CHANCE TO MEDIATE.

CONCESSIONS MUST BE MADE

President Gompers of American Federation Gives His Views on the Situation.

Chicago, March 29.—"No strike will be called until we have given the government an opportunity to mediate," declared Garretson and Morrissey, grand chiefs of the trainmen, after a conference this morning. A meeting of the strike board later today ratified the decision of the leaders.

Chairman Knapp of the Interstate Commerce Commission, and U. S. Labor Commissioner Neill are speeding from Washington to Chicago as they hope to avert a strike.

The conservative attitude of the men has reassured the public. It is now believed if the radicals can be restrained until Monday the danger of a strike will pass. Morrissey still declares the railroads must make the concessions demanded or a strike will be called. The railroad managers say this is a "bluff". The managers are willing to accept the services of civic federation officers to arbitrate. The workers declare they would not receive fair treatment at the hands of the federation. They also object to arbitration under the Erdmann act. They say, Chairman Knapp who would appoint a third arbitrator, would appoint a railroad magnate.

PRESIDENT GOMPERS EXPRESSES HIS VIEWS

Washington, March 29.—President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, believes that railway manipulations and "financial gouges" have brought about the present condition of unrest.

"The main object sought by them," he declared, "is to give rise to popular thought that the railroads have suffered through rate legislation of Congress and that further action will be a serious detriment. Their other object is to so manipulate the market as to squeeze out the small stockholders and gobble up everything for themselves."

Mr. Gompers is going to Ohio to try to settle the dispute between the National Cash Register company at Dayton and its printers.

DOG SAVES TRAIN FROM BAD WRECK

Barking Attracts Attention of Farmer Who Finds Tracks Washed Out and Flags Train

Zanesville, O., March 29.—The frantic barking of a large shepherd dog belonging to B. F. Dye, a farmer residing nine miles west of Marietta, saved an O. & L. K. freight from going into the Muskingum river last night.

Early in the evening Dye heard the dog barking at the railroad tracks. The dog refused to come when he called, so he went to bed. The dog's persistent barking kept him awake, however, and he finally investigated with the result that he found the track for more than a hundred feet had been washed out. He barely had time to flag a northbound freight train and prevent it from running into the washout.

As a result of a cut in prices by the American Windowglass company, which uses machines, every window-glass factory in the country, with the exception of a nonunion plant at Lancaster, O., will close April 25.

HUGHES' THREE STRONGEST SUPPORTERS

SEN. WM. WARRISTON.

SENATOR ALFRED R. PAGE.

SENATOR MARVIN D. HINMAN.

New York, March 29.—These three men—Senators Armstrong, Page and Hinman—Binghamton—have broken away from the machine and lined up in support of Governor Hughes' policy. When Mr. Hughes announced in January that he did not propose to interfere in legislative matters a hostile organization was formed, with Senator Raines, the majority leader, in command.

Since that time the friends of the Governor have been forced to sit silent while the forces of reaction had things all their own way. But the change came last week in connection with the hearing in the Senate on the charges against Superintendent of Insurance Kelsey.

Senator Raines got out of a sick bed to oppose the method of procedure and to seek to have nullified all that had been previously done. The committee went into executive session to discuss the matter and Raines lost.

IS ROBBED OF $200

Bellefontaine, March 29.—Masked highwaymen stopped the horse of Fred Virtue, an Indianapolis traveling man and took $200 at a gun's point.

DUNNO'S BODY FOUND.

Wapakoneta, March 29.—The body of Alex. Dunno, whose disappearance three months ago, caused the famous reservoir cases to be dropped, was found in Grand reservoir today. He may have been killed to shut off his evidence.

COMMISSION TO REPORT MONDAY IT IS BELIEVED

New York, March 29.—From present indications the trial of Thaw for the killing of White will be resumed early next week at the point where it was interrupted by Jerome demanding a lunacy commission. Thaw's examination by the lunacy board was such, it is believed, as to have about convinced the examiners that he is sane within the meaning of the statute, that he has knowledge of his position and is able to advise counsel. Thaw's lawyers are enthusiastic over the way he came through the examination. They believe he will make as good a showing when he appears before the commission tomorrow and that the commission will report Monday that he is sane. Probably Evelyn and Thaw's mother will be examined but only as to Thaw's manner since his imprisonment.

DEATH LIST IN WRECK IS OVER 30

Colton, Calif., March 29.—The death list in the wreck of the Southern Pacific overland which plunged into an open switch late Thursday, will exceed thirty. A dozen wounded people are in a dangerous condition and three or four are certain to die. The only two identified dead are Americans. The others are Italians en route to "Frisco." It has been definitely established that the wreck was due to carelessness of the switching crew, which left the switch open when entering the siding just before the arrival of the Overland. Alvord, Davis and Guernsey, members of the switching crew, accused of leaving the switch open, have been taken into custody and are held in $1,000 bail by the coroner.

JENNIE BURCH IS DECLARED INSANE AT CARMEL, N. Y.

YOUNG GIRL WILL BE TAKEN TO MATTEWAN ASYLUM FOR LIFE.

FOR KILLING A LITTLE CHILD

Parents of Baby Given a Poisoned
Peach, Forgave Girl at Close of the Trial.

Carmel, N. Y., March 29.—Reconciled to her fate through the forgiveness of Mrs. Winslip, mother of the little boy she killed, "because she loved him so," Jennie Burch will be taken today to the asylum for the criminally insane at Matteawan where she will remain until she is pronounced cured.

Little Jennie rebelled at first against the sentence but when Mrs. Winslip forgave her, Jennie became reconciled.

Carmel, N. Y., March 29.—Jennie Burch goes to Matteawan. The jury which, since Monday, has been trying the young girl for poisoning of baby Wilbur Winslip, returned a verdict of "not guilty by reason of insanity," and Justice Miller at once ordered her committed to the asylum for the criminal insane. The verdict came to the 15-year-old girl as she sat alone in the court and she broke down and wept bitterly. But after she had dried her tears, Mrs. Herbert Winslip, mother of the baby to whom Jennie gave the poisoned peach, went to her to say goodbye. In spite of her grief over her baby's death, Mrs. Winslip could not forget the girl she had reared, and tried to cheer her. She clasped the girl in her arms and kissed her and told her that she freely forgave her. Herbert Winslip, the father of the poisoned baby, also told Jennie that he had forgiven her and promised that Roscoe, the older child, should visit her at Matteawan.

MANAGER BOB BERRYHILL HERE

NEWARK, MANAGER CAME IN ON THURSDAY NIGHT FROM HIS HOME AT LEBANON.

Was Shocked Over Death of Chic Stahl and Played Ball With Him in 1895.

Manager Bob Berryhill is now in charge of the Newark club, having reported to the directors Thursday night.

The manager spent Friday in getting "next" to the conditions in Newark, though he has kept pretty well in touch with the general situation.

Friday afternoon Manager Berryhill and Manager Maurath visited the ball park and looked over the improvements being made on the grounds there. Manager Berryhill was greatly pleased with the improvements and was particularly pleased with the great change made in the appearance of the playing grounds.

Manager Berryhill talked Thursday evening about the death of Chic Stahl at West Baden, Ind. He was personally acquainted with the Boston captain and played ball with him in 1895. He was much shocked to learn of his death especially that the man would commit suicide.

Business Manager Quinn of the Columbus club was also known to Chic Stahl, and said:

"I knew Stahl well. We used to play on the same sand lots in Decatur, Ind., before Jimmy Breen took him to Roanoke. Stahl was an honor to the Quincy, Ill., club this summer."

NEW YORK TEAM FORFEITS GAME

New Orleans, March 29.—The game between the New York Nationals and Philadelphia Americans here was declared forfeited to Philadelphia at the end of the first inning. New York was at bat with two out, men on second and third and no runs. Manager McGraw claimed that Pitcher Plank of Philadelphia balked, but Umpire Zimmer of the Southern league refused to allow the balk. A wrangle followed, during which Catcher Bresnahan of New York was escorted from the field by the police and McGraw was ordered to leave the field by the umpire. The New York manager took his team with him and forfeited the game.

Stahl's Career.
Boston, March 29.—Charles S. Stahl, the ballplayer who committed suicide in Indiana, had been playing in Boston for the past 10 years. He married last October Miss Julia Maria Harmon of Roxbury. Mrs. Stahl was at the home of her parents when she received the news of the suicide. She said she received a letter from her husband in which he expressed relief at being able to give up the management of the team. Previously he had written that he could not sleep.

BERT BLUE SAYS "TRAIN TO HIT"

COLUMBUS BACKSTOP DEALS OUT ADVICE TO YOUNG BALL PLAYERS.

Says Too Many Colts Neglect Their Batting Eye While Perfecting Their Fielding.

Bert Blue, the former Zanesville backstop, who is now the mainstay of the Columbus catchers, is a philosopher and has taken occasion to deal out a few maxims for young players to follow.

"Hitting the ball on the nose is a funny thing after all," mused Bert. "It's strange how hard it is to cross the 300 line. The chances are mightily against the batsman right now and it's just a matter of outkicking and outguessing the man in the middle of the diamond. If I could hit .333 every year I would be worth $4000 to any club. This stinging the ball on the nose is the thing after all in baseball. I am surprised, too, that young players do not take more batting practice. They work hour after hour to get proficient in handling hot grounders and chasing difficult fly balls, but you hardly ever see a youngster studiously practicing batting. A young ball player ought to spend more time batting than anything else to make good in company. If he can field .980 and hit only .225 his job is a hard one to land."

Plenty of truth, too. Sting the ball regularly and your errors are forgotten.

If every young player would paste the above in his cap and follow the advice, things might improve in all minor league towns. Blue is young himself, but that makes his advice none the less valuable.

IS NOT FOR SOCIALISM.

It Suggests Industrial Despotism to Dr. Lyman Abbott.

In a sympathetically discriminating editorial Dr. Abbott, editor of the Outlook, sounds a needed note of warning at this time, when socialism, like the camel in the fable, has already poked its head under the folds of the American flag. Space permits only the following excerpt:

"We dissent from the method and to some extent from the doctrine of state socialism—that is, of that form of socialism which would make the state the chief if not the sole employer of industry—for two reasons:

"State socialism assumes that the evils of society are primarily in the organization of society, so that if the organization were changed the evils would disappear. In fact, society never will be better than the individuals who compose it. A sound ship can never be made of rotten timber. Individual reformation and social reconstruction must go on together.

"State socialism assumes that all functions of society should be carried on by one organization—namely, the state. In fact, society can better perform its various functions by separate organizations. Putting the church under state control did not make a free church. It is more free since it has been taken out from state control. Putting industries under state control would not make the industries free. The industries of the Free State of Congo are under state control, and industrial despotism is nowhere in the world so bad as it is in the Free State of Congo. The socialist replies that socialism assumes a democratic state to organize and carry on democratic industries. But in assuming that the state will be democratic when the strong men of the state are incited by covetousness as well as by ambition to control the state they assume as true what history proves to be false. To take industry out of the hands of a Carnegie and put it into the hands of a Croker would not make industry free, although Croker were kept in power by popular suffrage and Carnegie were not."

"In estimating the value of socialism the student should keep clearly in mind this distinction between its spirit, its doctrine and its programme. He should not be ready to accept its programme merely because he believes its doctrine and admires and shares in its spirit."

MORNING FIRE TO BE INVESTIGATED

DEPARTMENT CALLED SEVERAL TIMES TO THIS SAME PLACE.

Dennis Beatty's Meat Shop Tenth and Locust Street Scene of Blaze Friday Morning.

An alarm of fire sent in from Box 42 about 2:40 o'clock Friday morning called the Central company to Dennis Beatty's meat shop, located in the building formerly occupied by Edward Ferguson's bakery, near the corner of Tenth and Locust streets. When the firemen arrived they found that a large box, probably five feet square, which had been built in one corner of the room, had caught fire near the floor in some mysterious manner and that the fire had worked up one side of the box to the ceiling. The box was at one time used as an ice chest. The fire was quickly extinguished with the aid of the chemical, after the box had been torn to pieces. Mr. Beatty had occupied the room but a short time. The fire department has been called on several different times to extinguish fires that have originated in this box, and it is said that the Fire Marshal will investigate the matter. The fire was discovered by Officer McClure as he was on his way from patrol box 20 at the corner of Church and Eleventh streets to patrol box 19 at the corner of Locust and Ninth streets, thus demonstrating in a forcible manner the value of the patrol system.

Warden at Buckeye Lake.

Buckeye Lake will have a state game warden located there, to protect fish and game from ruthless illegal destruction. The salary of the warden will be jointly paid by the state and cottagers at the popular resort, and the laws will be rigidly enforced against all violators.—Thornville News.

Newark Garden Pictured.

The current number of the Ladies' Home Journal pays a pretty compliment to Newark by a reproduction of photographs taken in the garden of the George Ball residence, Hudson avenue. In a double page group of photographs of model gardens, accompanied by suggestions on how to care for them, are to be found three taken from this Newark residence.

Sends for Tobacco.

Mr. C. F. Schaus, the West Main street grocer, has received from a former resident of Licking county, who is now located at Gorgona, Canal Zone, Panama, enclosed in which was a one dollar bill and an order for a dozen packages of a certain brand of tobacco. He says he is unable to obtain any of his favorite brand in the zone. Mr. Schaus promptly filled the order and the tobacco has been started on its long journey. The writer of the letter desired that his name and address be not made known.

Signs of Spring.

The recent warm weather has had a very noticeable effect upon vegetation. Trees and all kinds of shrubbery are coming into bud and various forms of vegetation are far advanced for the season. Spring flowers are blooming and many plants which usually make their appearance the latter part of April are now above ground. The pessimist regards this as a bad omen for he has his well worn expression that "we will pay for this next summer." And so we may. Farmers and gardeners do not regard an extremely early spring with much favor. In case we do experience more cold weather which is very probable, or even have slight frosts which is more likely, plants in the bud will be killed. It will mean the destruction of many valuable crops so that it can readily be seen why the farmer and gardener fear the worst.

Bucksar's Restaurant.

Now at Ed Doe's.

Mr. Stanley Stotler, a well known young man of this city, who was for some time connected with Meridith Brothers in the clothing business, is just completing a course in the Columbus School of Optics and will associate himself with Mr. Ed Doe, so that he can begin his duties here the latter part of next week.

City Hall Deserted.

The city hall has practically been deserted by the mayor being witnesses called in the case of Pace vs. City. Auditor Maurath, Members Christian, Taylor and McVey of the Board of Service; Clerk Munch of the Board of Service and the City Council, and City Engineer Wells all being witnesses in the case.

Gets Money From West.

Mayor McCleary received a money order Friday from San Francisco for $15 being the payment of two fines assessed on two women arrested last October. The women were released, the man leaving a valuable diamond ring as security for the payment of the fines. Another letter in the same mail contained $18, being the fines assessed in February against two men. Both held good jobs which they would have lost had they been sent to jail.

Juvenile for April.

The Juvenile for April is just out. M. R. Scott, editor and publisher, has made this number an excellent one and it is full of good points, editorials and comments on things pertaining to juvenile court work as well as other current matters of interest. The editor is doing a commendable work in "boosting" the city play ground proposition. Taken as a whole, the April number of the magazine contains numerous gems of thought along the lines of juvenile work.

WHY ARE YOU WAITING?

Why do you put off selling your lot, house, buggy; or, in fact, anything you have to sell, rent, or trade? Just waiting for someone to come along and give you your price? Now, here is a good way to get the other fellow interested, and we will only charge you a quarter. Write on a slip of paper what you want to buy, sell, or rent. Express it in 18 words; send it with a quarter and THE ADVOCATE WANT ADS will do the rest. What say you? Don't wait—let it down—lest you forget.

March 29 In History.

1748—Carlo Maria Bonaparte, father of Napoleon, born, died 1821.
1769—Nicholas Jean de Dieu Soult Bonaparte's marshall and duke of Dalmatia, born in Guenene, died 1831.
1772—Emanuel Swedenborg, celebrated naturalist, mathematician and theosophist, died, born 1688. Swedenborg was born at Stockholm the son of a chaplain. The service of the state occupied a time chiefly until he reached the age of 35. To speculate in philosophy he devoted the remainder of his life.
1870—Dr. Carl Friedrich Neumann, German historian and orientalist died.
1891—Howard Crosby, clergyman, died in
New York city, born there 1835.
1901—James Stephens, noted Fenian leader of the last Irish uprising, died in Dublin; born 1823.

TAINTED MONEY

The Republican National Committee
Received From the New York Life Insurance Company.

It was recently announced that
Mr. Perkins, the partner of J.
Pierpont Morgan, had paid back the tainted money to the New York Life Insurance Company. This being the case it is now still more necessary that the Republican National committee should repay Mr. Perkins.
As Mr. Perkins has acknowledged it was morally wrong, if not legally punishable, to allow the trust funds that should be sacred to the widows and orphans to be plundered to advance the interests of the Roosevelt campaign and has, therefore, repaid the $50,000 with interest, it would seem to be the duty of President Roosevelt and Secretary Cortelyou to see that Mr. Perkins is repaid. As Morgan and company, the Rockefeller interests and the other Wall Street magnates that control the life insurance companies are constantly needing favors from the treasury department, it must be awkward for the Roosevelt administration to refuse their requests while under these pecuniary obliga-

cally and permanently cured by tions. Perhaps the unusual liberality of the secretary of the treasury with the public money, in the height of the panic, to the Wall Street interests was not influenced by the campaign contributions from those sources although the newspaper reports state that the White House and treasury department were flooded with appeal to avert the "threatened disaster," but when it comes to a question of granting others favors to the Wall Street interests, the pecuniary obligations under which the administration labors might turn the scale in favor of Wall Street instead of in favor of the people to whom it is rightfully due.

It is difficult to understand a man with the high moral instincts of President Roosevelt allowing such a blot on the page of his political history and nothing he can do will so add to his lustre as to order the transfer of the National Republican committee to make restitution to the life insurance companies and repay Mr. Perkins. Until that is done, every move of the administration to aid the harassed financial interests of Wall Street will be charged up by the watchful public to the contributions of the corporation magnates to the Republican campaign fund.
It may be very inconvenient to square accounts for such contributions from the life insurance companies have been going on for years and the sum total runs up into hundreds of thousands of dollars. Restitution means a square deal and to retain the tainted money mean dishonor, written with letters of fire upon the pages of history.

Senator Cullom has said that
"Harriman ought to be in the penitentiary." Harriman retorts: "If the senator said that he wasn't sober."
Cullom's opinion lacks practical significance because the means are wanting for its realization.

Burton, once a United States senator and more recently discharged from prison, says he was persecuted
because he offended the President.
If people believed that, the President would be even more influential with congress than he is at present.

THIS AND THAT

FASTER BONNETS.

"My Easter hat," said Widow Green to neighbor Widow Brown.
"Is yellow, blue and purple, the
prettiest in town,
It has a shining buckle, that is gifttering and bright,
And all the folks will envy me, I tell you it is a sight.
The parson when he sees it, will look
at none but me,
And he will take me home from church; now just you wait and see."

"My Easter hat is just plain white,
some pink upon the crown,
But that will match my dress you know," declared the Widow
Brown.
"Twas Easter morning and the sun was shining bright and fair,
Beth Widow Brown and Widow
Green arose a happy pair.
Now Widow Green had taken pains to primp and look her best,
But Widow Brown, with plain white hat, in her pink gown, was dressed.
The Widow Brown then went to church and looked among the lot,
To see if Widow Green was there,
and found that she was not.

Almost an hour had passed, the sermon would soon begin,
When in came Widow Green, all all soaked to the skin.

"Twas raining out, an April shower,
and Widow Green was wet,
Her Easter hat was ruined, and her gown its fate had met.

"The minister with Widow Brown, so pretty and so bright,
Walked home from church, both morning and at night.
It was not long till Widow Brown,
so happily changed her name,
For the parson wooed and wedded her, and loved her just the same.
But Widow Green? Don't mention her, poor thing! her heart is broken.

For Widow Brown the parson got,
and she only got a soaking.

hit the colored man a socker on the nose which knocked the colored man

CONSUMPTION

MAINLY CAUSED BY CHRONIC COLDS AND HANGING-ON COUGHS.

A prominent New England scientist has given a good deal of time to the study of consumption, and finds that comparatively few cases are hereditary.

Mostly all are caused by neglected coughs and colds, which gradually weaken the whole pulmonary system, and before people realize it there is a diseased spot in one lung; spitting blood soon follows and eventually a collapse.

Such an unnecessary end, such a pity, for all could have been so different. We know of many instances where our valuable cod liver preparation, Vinol, has been most beneficial in such cases.

Vinol is able to cure hanging-on colds, stubborn coughs, strengthen the lungs, and thus prevent the development of consumption, because it is the most perfect cod liver preparation ever compounded; it contains no oil or grease to upset the delicate stomach, yet it does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements actually taken from fresh cods' livers, with tonic iron added. We ask all Newark people to try Vinol for weak lungs, chronic coughs, hanging-on colds, or run-down and debilitated conditions, and will pay for the medicine ourselves if it fails to benefit.

How can we express our faith in Vinol more emphatically? Frank D.

NOTE—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Newark, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly

POLICE NEWS

Bobby Burns Comes to Grief—Mayor Deacon in Town—Smitty is Sick.

"Your name is Bobby Burns?" questioned the mayor in police court of a forlorn looking individual.

"Yessir," was the short reply. "You are charged with drunk and disorderly."

"Yessir."

"Five dollars and costs."

"Yessir."

"Stone pile until paid."

"Yessir."

And the namesake of the famous Scotch bard was led away to crack stone. Burns hails from Gallipolis, and when through cracking, stone will return to his labors on the farm.

A sick mother and spring house cleaning got two young men in the clutches of the police Thursday night.

Charles Sargeant of Walton, Mass., was traveling without cost from Kansas City to Walton to "see his sick mother." He mixed up with Officers Dawson and Roberts and drew $5 and costs.

H. R. Laycock, a paper hanger, was traveling to his home in the southern part of the state to take a job where he said there was plenty of work. His story did not appeal particularly to the mayor and he got $5 and the costs. Both men were sent to the county jail.

Mayor Deacon of Zanesville was in Newark Thursday and made a call on Mayor McCleery at the city building.

Charles Shaw, who was arrested at the Pan Handle station Wednesday night for loitering, was fined $1 and costs in police court, Friday morning.

The sentence was suspended and Shaw ordered out of town.

"Smitty the Tough" the Zanesville man looked up for loitering, being drunk and begging, is ill at the city prison. He has been on a prolonged spree and is in bad shape. He was released Friday and allowed to go to Zanesville.

DAY'S BUSINESS IN COURT HOUSE

WEST MAIN STREET PAVING CASE HEARD IN COMMON PLEAS COURT

Guardian Appointed for Mrs. Nellie Inlow—Partition Suit—Realty Transfers—Court Notes.

The case of the State of Ohio on relation of Wm. S. Pace vs. the City of Newark, Ohio, Wm. C. Christian, Milton M. Taylor, James W. McVey, members of the Board of Public Service of the city, and Brennan & Nutter, is on trial to the court today.

The plaintiff says that the City Council by the passage of ordinances and resolutions took steps to improve West Main street lying between Racoon creek bridge and Sixteenth street, and curbing the same upon both sides. That the cost of the improvement should be paid by assessing the cost on lots and lands abutting on both sides of the part of said street to be improved.

That the plans and specifications provided for paving the street with what is commercially known as pressed paving brick, which shall be repressed so that the maximum amount of material is forced into the brick; that they shall be hard, but not brittle, and the condition of vitrification shall extend throughout the whole brick. The plaintiff says that his bid was the lowest and best bid. That Brennan & Nutter, to whom the contract was awarded, are not the lowest bidders. That their bid is not legal; that it was not signed by every person interested therein.

A preliminary order of injunction was heretofore issued restraining Brennan & Nutter from proceeding with the execution of the contract until the hearing of the motion to discharge the preliminary order of injunction which is now being heard to the court.

Stasel, Smythe & Smythe; Bolton, Kibler & Montgomery, Norpell & Norpell, Jones & Jones.

Guardian Appointed.

The Probate court Friday morning held an inquest as to the appointment of a guardian for Mrs. Nellie Inlow, on the ground that she was not capable of taking care of herself.

Upon hearing the evidence the court found that the guardian should be appointed as prayed for and I. M. Phillips was named by the friends as the proper person to be guardian. Bond $1000.

Partition Suit.

Chase P. Sams has commenced suit in the Common Pleas court against Benjamin F. Sams and others for the partition of real estate in Jackson-town. The plaintiff is represented by Attorney J. M. Swartz.

In Supreme Court.

The case of the E. H. Everett company of this city vs. the German Insurance company to recover insurance on a policy which the company had issued on the glass house, which was destroyed by fire several years ago during an electric storm was before the Supreme court on Friday.

The company claimed that the loss was due to cyclone and not fire and that it was not liable for the loss. The trial of the case required two weeks in the Common Pleas court, and resulted in a verdict for the Everett company. The Circuit court reversed this judgment and verdict of the Common Pleas court and the case was argued Friday in the Supreme court at Columbus in a proceeding to have the judgment of the Circuit court reversed. Robbins Hunter, Jones & Jones and Flory & Flory represented the Everett company, and Kibler & Montgomery represented the insurance company.

Answer and Cross Petition.

In the case of Edward Unstatter and others vs. the Newark Savings Bank company, Edward Kibler as administrator de bonis non of the will of James Hickey, deceased, for cross petition against the defendant says:

That on May 21, 1904, there was a deposit in the Newark Savings Bank in the name and to the credit of Gilbert C. Daugherty, as executor of James Hickey, deceased, $1402.48 which Daugherty had deposited in the bank for safe keeping, the funds belonging to the estate, the same being deposited in the bank by the executor officially, and in his name as such executor.

That after the date mentioned a receiver was appointed to take charge of the assets and property of the bank, who stated the account to Daugherty as such executor, and ascertained that there was due Daugherty as executor the sum mentioned; that on June 15, 1906, G. C. Daugherty died and Edward Kibler was appointed and qualified as his executor, and is still acting as such.

That on March 2, 1907, there was paid defendant by A. A. Stasel as receiver of the Newark Savings Bank company, $578.23, being a dividend of 40 per cent; that no other or further payments have been made and there is due the defendant as such administrator of James Hickey, deceased for the Newark Savings Bank company, $1402.48 with interest thereon from May 21, 1904. Kibler & Montgomery, attorneys for answering defendant.

Court Notes.

In the case of Hattie Williams vs. Wm. Gutridge, appealed from the Justice court of James R. Atcherley, the plaintiff says that on the 3d day of April, 1906, defendant broke into her apartment and carried away household goods, money and property to the damage to plaintiff in the sum of $300, for which she asks judgment. Smythe & Smythe, attorneys for plaintiff.

Courtroom Repartee.

The following anecdote is related of Judge Thornton, who was chief justice of the court of common pleas in New Hampshire and judge of the superior court of the state in the eighteenth century.

While he was presiding in the common pleas a counsel who was making the closing argument to the jury in a protracted case on a warm afternoon discovered that the presiding judge on the bench was absorbed in reading a book, and his associate was soundly sleeping by his side. The advocate turned to the jury and, with indignant emphasis, remarked, "Gentlemen, my unfortunate client has no hope but in your attention, since the court in their wisdom will not condescend to hear his case!" Of course there was no sleeping on the bench after that, but Judge Thornton looked up from his book and remarked: "When you have anything to offer, Mr. —, which is pertinent to the case on trial the court will be happy to hear you. Meantime I may as well resume my reading."

Doubtless He Did So.

A certain young preacher was much disliked by his congregation for his foolishness and conceit. He considered himself greatly persecuted and, meeting an old German friend of his on the street one day, began to tell his woes, ending up by saying: "And Mr. Brown, the church warden, actually called me a 'perfect ass.' My cloth prevents me from re-sending insults, but I think I should refer to it in the pulpit next Sunday. 'What would you advise?'"

"Mein friend!" said the old German, with a twinkle in his eye, "I know not, but I think that all you can do will be to pray to bray for dem as usual!"—Lippincott's.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Wright of Alexandria Married Fifty Years Ago. Family Reunion.

Alexandria, O., March 29.—Mr. Rufus Wright and Miss Elizabeth Lyman were united in marriage March 26, 1857. Last Tuesday they celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Only the immediate relatives and pastor of the M. E. church were present. The couple have enjoyed good health. No couple enjoy life more than Mr. and Mrs. Wright. One remarkable thing about their married life is that their three children, nine grand children and one great grand child are all living. Miss Sarah Lyman was the only guest present at the anniversary that was present at their wedding. An excellent dinner was served, after which the guests were highly entertained with music.

The following persons were present: Lyman Wright and wife, Fred Wright and wife, Mrs. Dr. Rogers and daughter of Chicago, Rufus Wright and wife, Fred Hammond and wife, Elizabeth, Ellis and Forest Wright, Ida McDaniel, Samuel Graves and wife, Miss Eunie Lyman of Des Moines, Ia., Rev. Mr. McDaniel and wife.

BACKACHE AND DESPONDENCY

Are both symptoms of organic derangement, and nature's warning to women of a trouble which will sooner or later declare itself.

How often do we hear women say, "It seems as though my back would break." Yet they continue to drag along and suffer with aches in the small of the back, pain low down in the side, dragging sensations, nervousness and no ambition.

They do not realize that the back is the main-spring of woman's organization and quickly indicates by aching a diseased condition of the feminine organs or kidneys, and that aches and pains will continue until the cause is removed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

made from native roots and herbs has been for many years the most successful remedy in such cases. No other medicine has such a record of cures of feminine ills.

Miss Lena Nagel, of 117 Morgan St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes:—"I was completely worn out and on the verge of nervous prostration. My back ached all the time. I had dreadful periods of pain, was subject to fits of crying and extreme nervousness, and was always weak and tired. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Falling and Displacements, and all Organic Diseases. Dissolves and expels Tumors at an early stage. It strengthens and tones the Stomach, Cures Headache and Indigestion and invigorates the whole feminine system.

The Quiet DRESSER

THE quiet dresser is just as particular about the cut of his suit as the ultra fashionable fellow. While radical changes in styles do not appeal to him, he insists upon all the little variations that each season introduces. His coat and vest must be of the correct length and the lapels of the latest width and depth; and the trousers neither too wide nor too narrow—just right.

This is the store for these conservative and refined dressers. Our eyes are always focused on the new features as fast as they come out.

A choice variety of conservative models in every kind of suiting—black, blues, many shades of grays, browns and all sorts of neat mixtures.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

MRS. CLESTA RUNYON.
Mrs. Clesta Runyon, aged 72 years, died at the home of her son, 215 Hoover street, Woodside, at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The deceased has resided in this city but about a year, having come here from Pike county, Ohio. She leaves three sons, George of this city, Hiram of Pike county, and Wayne of Indian Territory. The funeral will take place at Waverly, O., the body being shipped there Saturday morning at 5:45 over the Pennsylvania.

T. E. ORR.
Deputy County Clerk E. M. Larasor has just received the information that T. E. Orr, expert poultry judge, died March 24, at his home in Beaver, Pa.
Mr. Orr was the most expert and popular judge in the United States having judged many of the largest shows, including the St. Louis Exposition in America, for several years, and his death will be learned with much regret by the members of the Poultry Association of this city, as he judged the first exhibit of the local association in 1902 in Music Hall.

CARD OF THANKS.
The address of many friends in this sickness and at the death of our daughter, Tillie, is most heartily appreciated. We are indebted to many friends of kindness and words of sympathy and we wish especially to thank Mrs. O'Bryan and Plunkett for their gifts of comfort and for the services of the Newark Fire Department and many friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers they sent in our hour of sorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bausch.

HIS BEST PLAYMATE.

I like to play with Cousin Frank and Willie Watson, too, And wouldn't I be glad if I could do what they can do? My Cousin Frank can run as fast almost as any man, And very few can jump as high as Willie Watson can, But I can't jump the way they do or hardly run at all, Because the nurse, when I was just a baby, let me fall.

I can't go out and hitch when sleighs are going down the street, For boys can't do those things unless they're lively on their feet, But nearly every day or so when snow is on the ground My papa puts me on my sled and takes me all around And paces like a horse and builds me snow men out of snow, And all the time my papa he's the bestest boy I know.

I like to play with other boys, they're all so kind to me, And all the boys they get they bring around for me to see, And one time when a boy who lives down by the railroad track Came past and called me names and said I wasn't sass him back, But when he saw I couldn't walk it seemed to make him sad, And then he tried to give me all the marbles that he had.

But when it's Sunday mornin' that's the best of all the days, Because my papa always stays at home with me and plays, And nearly every game we have it happens that I beat, And he pities me he's angry then and says he thinks I cheat, You couldn't hardly help but see he means it, though, And papa he's the bestest all boys I know.

—Chicago Record-Herald.

What He Wanted Her to Do.
Six-year-old John was especially fond of gravy at the table. One day John had been bad, and his mother told him she did not care to have such a bad boy; he might go out in the wide, wide world, and she would get a good boy. However, she said, she would not send him entirely empty handed, so she fixed him up a little bundle, pretending to put in different articles, such as clothing, food, etc.

John was told to kiss his sisters and brothers goodby and go. He stood the ordeal bravely, took his little bundle and backed toward the door. With his hand on the knob he turned to his mother and asked:
"Mother, did you put gravy in my bundle?"—Chicago Tribune.

SEMI-MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

Partnerships Between Cities and Companies Are Bad.

Whenever in these days an electric light company is unfortunate enough to have a street lighting contract expire in a city where the municipal ownership of the street lighting plant has been agitated there sometimes comes forth out of the chaos of ideas as to how the municipal ownership business should be handled some proposition from a private company which purports to have the welfare of the city rather than any private gain at heart.

This company, with great love for the commonwealth, either real or assumed, usually comes forward with a proposition for a kind of "semi-municipal ownership," the company to perform the work of lighting the city for a number of years at a good round sum and at the end of the contract the lighting plant to be turned over to the city free of cost and payment for the plant to be made out of the regular monthly payments of the city for its lighting, such monthly payments being invariably a good round sum per lamp. Now, such propositions as this may be made in good faith by a company of public spirited but misguided citizens who really wish to serve the city, and there are usually some respectable names connected with an enterprise of this kind when it is launched. However, there is usually an African somewhere in the woodpile or at least a strong possibility that there will be one before the game is through.

It seems remarkable that any municipality in this day and generation can be deluded into the belief that any such scheme of semi-municipal ownership can compare for a minute with a good, straight, short contract at reasonable rates with a corporation already in the lighting field. After all, a redeeming feature to this scheme is that at the end of a term of years it is fairly certain to bring home forcibly to a municipality the depreciation due to advance in the art as well as the depreciation caused by wear and tear.—Electrical World.

ITS INFLUENCE ON BRIBERY.

Municipal Ownership Would Modify, but Not Abolish It.

One of the truest statements made by advocates of municipal ownership is that it would put an end to bribery of city officials by public service corporations. It certainly would wherever that is practiced. But it wouldn't put an end to bribeable officials, and unless the city should manufacture its own engines, machinery, street cars, electric lamps and other supplies the quality and price of these would be largely regulated by such officials.

Every one who is familiar with the school trade knows that orders for school books and supplies are in many cities obtainable only by crossing the palms of members of school boards with a liberal supply of gold and that a change of textbooks is frequently ordered merely because of these itching palms.

Municipal ownership will not change human nature, and venal officials can hold up manufacturing companies just as easily and profitably as they can lighting and traction companies. Did it ever occur to you that a corporation isn't anxious to get rid of its money that way? But when it comes to a holdup almost any one will give up the "long green" to "public servants" who are zealous, not for the public welfare, but for their private purse.

THE LIMEKILN CLUB.

Brother Gardner Announces End of the Debating Society.

MEMBERS ARE GIVEN A SHOCK

Unexpected News Comes Nearly Causing the Death of State Rights Johnson, Who Chokes Over a Peanut During Excitement.

[Copyright, 1907, by P. C. Eastmont.]

It was whispered through Paradise hall before the regular weekly meeting was called to order that there would be something doing before the evening was ended, and when the routine of business was finished and Brother Gardner arose in his place, with a serious look on his face, there were profound silence and an uneasy feeling. He motioned to Samuel Shin to put another soap box into the stove and to

"HE YELLED; HE WAVED HIS ARMS LIKE A WINDMILL."

Pickles Smith to throw away the remains of the raw turnip he was chanking on and then quietly said:
"My friends, I hereby announce to you de dissolushun of de Limekiln Debating society. From and arter dis date it will be hung by de neck until dead."

(Sensation lasting a full minute, during which time State Rights Johnson choked over a peanut and had to be pounded on the back and kicked on the shins.)

"Some two months ago sartin members of dis club came to me wid de proposishun to start a debatin' society widin dis organizashun. It was to meet weekly. It was to draw members away from saloons. It was to elevate 'em. It was to add to deir mental knowledge and give 'em more general confidence in deirselves."

"I looked upon de idea wid doubt. I believed dat de persons interested could benefit deirselves a heap more by sittin' down at home wid de spellin' book and de arithmetic. I gin my consent, however, and de society was formed and begun to hold meetin's. I kept away until de meetin' last week. I wanted to gin de society a fair chance to see what it could do wid Elder Penstock as de shinin' light at its head."

Uneasy Movements.
(Hitching around and uneasy movements in all parts of de hall. General feeling that a brick house was going to hit some one before de thing was over.)

"I drapped into de meetin' last week spectin' to be highly entertained. I had heard dat de society was in full blast and takin' de shine out of any thing of de kind in de keentry. Seberal people told me dat Cicero wasn't in it wid some of de members and dat had Clay, Calhoun and Webster libed on till dis date dey would have hid deir heads in humiliasun."

(More of that uneasy feeling, during which some one threw an apple core and hit Drawback Henderson in de left eye.)

"De subject of debate dat evenin' was, 'Kin a Cross Eyed Man Eber Attain Greatness?' De first speaker was Giveadam Jones. He hail't cross-eyed, but was born bow legged and has a sympathy fur cross eyed folks. He riz up and tackled de subject like a man savin' wood fur his breakfast, and he closed his remarks by sayin':

"De attenuation of de aggravashun exceeds de compatability of de exaggerashun so much dat it is useless to persecute de procrastinashun any further."

"Yes, dat was de way he wound up, and de close was received wid thunders of applause. Brudder Jones sot down like a man who had cleaned out de last chicken in de coop, and den Brudder Snyback White got up and tried his hand. He yelled. He waved his arms like a windmill. He jumped up and down. When his knees got weak and his voice got hoarse he wound up wid:

"You kin believe wid Charles Sumner or wid Tom Collins, but as fur me de complashun of de insinashun in courages de conglomerashun till I feel dat de affilashun must eventually triumph ober de humiliasun."

"Yes, my friends, dat's de way Brudder White ended up, and when he sot down wid a superior smile on his face a number of you gathered around him and shook his hand. You just reckoned dat he had climbed to de topmost limb of de tree and had reached de pinnacle."

(More uneasiness. All over de hall it was like a farmer's hired man waiting for de cow to kick him and wondering where her hoof would land.)

"De remarks of de precedin' speak-

There were once two fellows in our town that were twin brothers. They looked so much alike that their most intimate friends could not tell them apart. Lem had no teeth, and Dave had. Still, they looked precisely alike just the same. The only way you could tell them apart was to stick your finger in Lem's mouth, and if he bit you it was Dave.—Judge's Library.

CHAS. E. MATTHEWS LEAVES AUDITORIUM

Thursday night witnessed the close of Charles E. Matthews' management of the Auditorium theatre. Mr. Ernest T. Johnson, the choice of the trustees for the coming season, will assume the management of the theatre for the remainder of the theatrical season and promises a very pleasing list of attractions as a closing to a successful and prosperous year.

Mr. Matthews has handled the house admirably and has furnished Newark with a number of the highest class attractions and that his successor is fully capable of continuing to raise the taste of the locality on things theatrical, is well known by those acquainted with Mr. Johnson.

TO SAVE RAYNOR.
London, March 29.—Thousands of signatures were added today to the petition being circulated to save the life of Horace George Raynor, convicted of murdering William Whiteley, the millionaire merchant. The sentencing of Raynor to death has aroused a storm of popular indignation.

HE CAN NOW TALK.
New York, March 29.—F. Bierlein can talk today for the first time in three months. A blow caused a depression of the skull last December that cost him his power of speech and his complete recovery is the result of a rare and delicate operation made by surgeons. Bierlein had suffered terribly and had come to believe that he would be dumb to the end of his days. Doctors Mayby and Steward examined and began an operation with electricity and an X-ray photograph to guide them. They removed three and a half inches of Bierlein's skull. When the patient came out of the influence of the anaesthetic he was able to whisper. Today he can talk. Instead of inserting a silver plate as is usual in cases of trephining the surgeons drew the scalp over the wound and sewed it.

ELDER JACKSON'S PHILOSOPHY.

(Written for the Advocate.)

"Well," said Elder Jackson, as he pushed his chair back from the table. "Dat suttlin' wuz a fine suppah, and de only thing missin' wuz 'greens,' but Ah s'pose de wimmen has de available supply cornered, fo' all de Baster hats dat Ah has seen yit has been trimmed up wid what Ah took fo' a mess ob 'greens,' which colah am berry becomin' to de white wimmen, but don't assimilate wid de complexion ob ous brunettes. Now, if you all will go to de parlor wha de guests am assembled, Ah will proceed to unoad mah 'mind ob de bricky-brack dat has accumulated dere in de past two weeks.

"Sece de sun's rays hab been gittin' mo' powerful, Ah notice a disposition in some ob you to hunt de sunny places and loaf instid ob goin' out an' hustlin' in de whitewashin', gardenin' and carpet-beatin' line. Dis spring 'tiresomeness am a disease wid de white-man, so ef he ketches it, it am none ob yo' business, ef anything it am none ob yo' gain, fo' you is competitors now, but wid ous race it am perfectly natcheral, and bein' fo'-warned, we mus' pull up ous galluses mighty tight and use a heap ob will powah to withstand de feelin' dat it am ous right to soak up all de loose rays ob de sun at dis season ob de year.

"When dis feelin' cumms ober you Ah advise you to think how near you is out ob potatoes an' cabbage, an' dat you kyan't git dese widout wukin', an' dat dey mak jist as good vittles fo' a cullud man as dey do fo' de Irishman an' de Carps. So ef you push yo'self along enuf to git a good sweat started de chances are dat you kin git de spring feber microbe 'liminated from you' system and kin keep up a lick ob wuk all de summer.

"Ah onct knew a white man, dat as usual had de interest ob de cullud man in his pocketbook an' his own interest in his heart, dat got a gang ob cullud men to gib up dere steady jobs, an' go ober de kentry wid him a playin' baseball fo' de gate receipts, an' be in wid him in det bettin'; dat looked good, an' dey did 'berry well on cloudy days, but as de season advanced an' it got warmer dey lost interest and begun to loose most ob de games, ontwell one day when de sun cum out perticklerly strong de fielders went to sleep so often dat de empire had to call de game an' de white man

HE IS AGAINST IT.

Archbishop Ireland Speaks Out on Public Ownership.

In an address before the Society of the Army of the Tennessee, in response to the toast "Our Country," Archbishop Ireland said:

"It is the day of utopias. Seldom, if ever before, in the history of human society was there greater need of prudent wisdom on the part of would be teachers, of patient reflection on the part of the listening masses. The greatest responsibility lies on all to move slowly, to think wisely, to avoid all peril of leaps into the dark.

"A chief panacea put before us is common ownership, through city, state or nation, of the chief agencies of productivity and of the transportation hither and thither of the results of this productivity. Let all be on their guard. Common ownership in one direction leads readily to common ownership in another—all the more so when the purpose really held in mind by the many is to grasp wealth without much personal effort, to despoil others in making up one's own deficiencies. And is there not serious danger therein of weakening individual ambition—which has been in America particularly the great stimulus to the wondrous material development with which the country has been blessed?"

THE TONGUE OF A BIRD.

An Organ Which Varies Much in the Different Species.

Few people have given thought to the subject of birds' tongues. Many, even of the amateur bird students, know little of the literature on the subject and still less from personal observation.

Birds must use their bills as hands, and to some extent the tongues supplement such use. Thus nut and seed eating birds extract the kernel from the shell, which is cracked between the mandibles.

The full complement of bones of the tongue consists of eight. The shape varies considerably in different species, and the comparative size very much more, although there is a prevailing general resemblance. The size and development of the tongue control the shape and utility of the organ. Well developed front bones mean a thick, fleshy tongue, such as we find in members of the duck family, while small forward bones usually accompany a small tongue of less importance to the owner, sometimes little more than rudimentary, like that of the pelican.

Among such birds as have occasion to protrude the tongue well beyond the tip of the bill the hind bones are marvelously developed and greatly elongated, for these are the bones on which the tongue is hung.

The edges of the tongues of most birds are more or less fringed, this feature being most noticeable in thin tongues. Most birds have a greater or less number of papillae—small fleshy projections, spinelike in appearance and usually inclined backward—on the upper surface of the tongue. These are of service in working the food backward toward the throat.

Some of the sea birds have very simple tongues, which serve but little purpose. The tongues of the honey creepers have very fine and long feathering, while those of the woodpecker are long, slender and pointed, and the roots of some species curve clear around the back of the skull, up over the crown, and their tips rest at the base of the upper mandible. With the exception of the sapsuckers the tongues of woodpeckers are capable of great protrusion, and the tip is barbed. The sapsuckers, however, instead of having sharp, barbed tongues like those of other woodpeckers, have brushlike tongues as a result of the degeneration of the bristles on their surface into hairs standing out from the tongue rather than pointing backward.

Birds with long bills do not always have correspondingly long tongues. The kingfishers, with their disproportionately large bills, have short tongues. The outer edges of the very long tongues of humming birds are closely rolled up into two tubes lying side by side, by means of which the birds are enabled to suck the nectar from flowers.—New York Post.

Utility of Censors.

"When Maxim Gorky dined with me," said a literary New Yorker, "he talked about the Russian censorship.

"He said that in the course of the Russo-Japanese war he had occasion in an article to describe the headquarters of one of the grand dukes. He wrote of these headquarters, among other things:

"And over the desk in his highness' tent is a large photograph of Marie la Jambe, the beautiful ballet dancer."

"Before this article could appear the censor changed that sentence to, 'And over the desk in his highness' tent is a large map of the theater of war.'"

Detroit News.

The Ostrich.

In its habits, methods of life and prejudices the ostrich is one of the most curious creatures of the animal kingdom. It cannot be tamed, though it is easily trained to harness. When taught to race it seems to delight in a brush on the track or road with a horse. The gait of the ostrich is a lumbering sort of jog trot, which becomes delightfully easy when the bird is traveling fast. Unhindered by a rider and traveling with the wind this muscular creature can outstrip any horse.

No Intimation of Graft.

A dispatch from Wilkesbarre in regard to the municipal electric light plant of Easton, Pa., the breakdown of which has left that city in temporary darkness, says:

"There is no intimation of graft. The condition is due apparently to the fact that city employees, appointed by men holding political office, cannot be expected to have the same knowledge of the electric lighting business that skilled employees of private corporations have, and consequently there is waste and inefficiency in a city plant which would not be possible in a well conducted private plant."

Why He Opposes "M. O."

As a member of our city council some years ago I investigated this question of municipal ownership before we contracted for our electric lights and found that in every instance where the cost of municipal lighting was reported below that offered by independent contractors the difference and more appeared on the general taxes, and in most places it was frankly admitted that the light and water plants were built by the city, but used by the politicians.—Home E. Stewart in Warren (O.) Chronicle.

A Glimpse of the Millennium.

Government ownership of railroads and telegraphs and municipal ownership of public utilities may come sometime, but will never come without damage to the public welfare until every phase of the management and operation of the same is put on a strictly nonpartisan merit system and thorough business principles.

A Ruse.

[Original.]

"My dear fellow, the woman is fooling you."

"By heaven, you shall prove your words or—"

"Don't speak it. I will prove them."

"How?"

"After my own fashion. I shall take a good deal of trouble and subject myself to some risk, besides incurring the lasting enmity of my best friend in case of failure."

"Then don't try."

"And let you fall into the toils of an adventuress? Do you call that friendship?"

"Does friendship require one to induce a pure and noble woman?"

"Enough of this. I am going to take steps to show you that this pure and noble woman is fooling you."

Bisbee, the last speaker, was about to leave, when Hilliard, the other, stopped him. "You do not have my consent to this proceeding, but if you will give me your plan I will execute it myself."

"You shall act with me. Virginia Lambert is now receiving the attentions of a man named Connor—Frank Connor. He?"

"I will go at once, and if I find—"

"Nonsense! Either he knows what she is or he doesn't. If he knows, he will not give her away. If he doesn't, he will consider you a fool to suppose she loves you instead of him."

"What is your plan?"

"I have not yet made it. I will go home and think one out. You shall hear from me as soon as I have done so."

"Very well. I have great confidence in your ingenuity."

"I take chances—that is, in plans laid for myself."

"Take the same chances for me."

The next day Bisbee told his friend that he had formed a plan, but it could not be put in practice till Connor should go out of town for a day or two; but, since he made frequent trips here and there, they should not have long to wait. Ten days later Bisbee announced his plan and that the time was ripe. Connor had gone away for overnight. "You go to his rooms; I will go to his office," he added.

An hour later Hilliard appeared at Connor's rooms and, producing a forged search warrant, proceeded to go through what papers he could find there. He found nothing of correspondence between Mr. Connor and Miss Lambert.

"In a fool and a knave," he said to himself, "to resort to such despicable means. I shall wash my hands of the business."

Going to his rooms, he waited till Bisbee came in.

"Well," Hilliard asked, "what luck?"

"Let me tell you what I have done. I went to Connor's office and demanded to see him at once. Of course they told me what I knew—that he was out of town. I told the clerks that he was under suspicion of embezzlement and assumed as a detective to take possession of the office.

"When will Connor return?" I demanded.

"Likely some time during the day."

"You are deceiving me. He will not return till tomorrow. Why do you say he will be here today?"

"Because there is a telegram for him. If he were to remain away overnight, it would not have been sent here."

"Does he not receive telegrams of a business nature?"

"Seldom. They are usually of a private nature."

"Open the telegram."

"The clerk tore off the envelope and handed me the dispatch. It read:

"Be at the gardens at 9 tonight."

"It is a lie!" exclaimed Hilliard. "You are deceiving me."

"We will go to the gardens and see for ourselves."

There was an open air concert at the gardens, the guests strolling about a pagoda where the orchestra played. The lights were few, but very bright. Consequently there were brilliant spots interspersed with dark ones. The two friends passed back and forth with the throng, keeping their eyes open the while. Presently they espied a couple sitting on a bench in a recess between exuberant foliage. They stood with an electric light pouring its rays full upon them. The lady in the case turned her face to hide it, but she was too late. The two men advanced, and Hilliard cried in a voice of agony:

"Virginia!"

Her companion arose and, stepping forward, exclaimed indignantly:

"Gentlemen, what means this intrusion?"

"It may be an intrusion," Hilliard replied, "but it is justified. The lady you are escorting was to have married me within a few weeks."

The woman gave Hilliard a beseeching look, while his friend Bisbee took him by the arm and tried to lead him away. But he would not go. Raising a walking stick he held in his hand, he brought it down on Connor's skull. Connor reeled a foot. A crowd gathered, a policeman rushed to the scene, and the party of four were arrested.

"Fool!" exclaimed Hilliard to his friend. "Now it must all come out, and we shall have to pay for playing detectives."

"I see it all now," said Connor. "You are the men who pretended to be officers of the law."

The result of the episode was that Bisbee was thanked by Hilliard for undeceiving him and instead of being prosecuted by Connor for trespass received also his thanks, since he, too, had been undeceived.

We Offer $1,000.

For a Disease Germ That Liquozone Cannot Kill.

This offer goes out with every bottle of Liquozone. Do you suppose we would do that if any known germ could resist it?

Liquozone is for those who believe that a germ disease calls for a germicide; that the germs must be killed before the trouble can end. You have doubtless tried the old ways, and you know the results. We ask you to try the new way; to try it at our expense. Use what millions have used and learn what they know about it. You are not fair to yourself until you do that.

What Liquozone Is.

Liquozone is a tonic-germicide, the virtues of which are derived solely from oxide gases. No alcohol, no narcotic, nothing but gas enters into it. The process of making requires large apparatus, and consumes 14 days' time. The object is to so combine the gases with a liquid as to carry their virtues into the system.

The result is a germicide so certain that we publish with every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that Liquozone cannot kill. It destroys them because germs are of vegetable origin. But to the body Liquozone is exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying.

That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poisons when taken internally. They are impossible, for they destroy the tissues as well as the germs. That is why medicine proves so helpless in dealing with germ diseases. Liquozone, on the contrary, acts as a remarkable tonic.

We Paid $100,000.

For the rights to Liquozone, after thousands of tests had been made with it, after its power had been demonstrated for more than two years in the most difficult germ diseases. Conditions which had resisted medicine for years yielded at once to it, and diseases considered incurable were cured.

That was five years ago. Since then millions of people in every part of the world have shared in the benefits of this invention. Nearly every hamlet, every neighborhood, has living examples of its power. Now we ask you to let it do for you what it did for them.

Germ Diseases.

Most of our sickness has, in late years, been traced to germ attacks. Some germs—as in skin troubles—directly attack the tissues. Some create toxins, causing such troubles as Rheumatism, Blood Poison, Kidney Disease and nerve weakness. Some destroy vital organs, as in Consumption. Some—like the germs of Catarrh—create inflammation; some cause indigestion. In one of these ways, nearly every serious ailment is a germ result.

Such conditions call for a germicide, not for common drugs. Liquozone does what other means cannot accomplish. And it is wrong to cling to old ways when millions of people know a way that is better.

50c Bottle Free.

If you wish to know what Liquozone does please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on a local druggist for a full-size bottle, and will pay the druggist ourselves for it. This is our free gift, made to convince you; to let the product itself show you what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it to-day, for it places you under no obligations whatever.

CONTRACTORS TAKE ACTION AT A MEETING

CARPENTERS RECENTLY DECIDED TO DEMAND AN INCREASE IN WAGES.

BUT CONTRACTORS RESIST IT

Persons Interested in Both Sides Present at Conflict at North Side Wm. York.

It appears that a clash is bound to come between the contractors and builders of the city and the carpenters. At a meeting of about thirty contractors, held Thursday night, the recent action of the local Carpenters' Union was denounced with much vehemence and a positive statement of dissatisfaction was agreed upon. The local Carpenters' Union met only a few days ago and raised the wage scale to 37 1-2 cents an hour, showing the time to eight hours a day. He before the scale has been 33 1-2 cents an hour for nine hours. In other words the wage asked is the same for eight hours that it has been received for nine.

The contractors, in Thursday night's meeting, claimed that the conditions for building are very bad now anyhow, the price of lumber being unusually high, and all other material being proportionately advanced and that such a movement on the part of the carpenters cannot be recognized.

There will probably be other meetings during the first of the week, and persons interested in both sides of the discussion say that neither will give up.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

The members of the Builders and Traders Exchange met in regular session March 28, 1907, and adopted the following resolutions to take effect April 1, 1907.

Adopted the nine hour work day and wages same as paid in 1906. Signed by the following contractors of Newark, Ohio, and endorsed by other trade members of the Builders' Exchange.

Shiner & Southern, W. H. Wilkins, Palmer Bros., D. J. Taylor, E. B. Jones, P. S. Phillips, U. E. Smith, Walter P. Ferguson, S. B. Fritzsche & Son, J. M. Settles & Son, E. A. Shavick, W. D. Van Tassel, Joseph Stasel, E. Shummel, James C. Linn, J. M. Garber, D. E. Bope, O. P. Dope, Newark Real Estate & Improvement Co., Bailey & Keely, Nuttall & Bishop, J. W. Weatley, W. F. Ballinger, Charles M. Baker, F. S. Scott, George H. Fromholtz, W. M. Walters, W. H. Norris, J. D. Swan, Mages & Davis (Timmers), I. Shummel, Fred C. Evans, John A. Chilcote, William W. Bricome, J. C. Jones, Thomas F. Conter, F. A. Tiebout, Lon Shaw, J. B. Smith, T. J. Jivin, Hugh D. De Boid.

The meeting of the above named contractors and resolution passed were owing to a notice given to the public by the Carpenters' Union that they would not work after the first of April for less than 37 1-2 cents per hour, this being an advance in wages, and also demanded that they should only work eight hours and call this a day. Now, owing to the high price of material and the outlook for the coming season it is deemed very unwise and would not be just to the public that the contractors should admit the demands of the Union.

By order of Builders' Exchange

MAX NORPELL IS HOME FROM FAR WEST

Mr. Max Norpell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norpell, who has been spending the winter with his grandfather at Riverside, Cal., returned home Thursday night, having had a strenuous time in crossing the continent. He left Riverside, Cal., two weeks ago and has been trying to get home ever since then. He was delayed four days at Los Angeles by the flood and had great difficulty in getting from that city to San Francisco. After traveling 200 miles his train was forced to return to Los Angeles and the second train he took met a like fate. The third train out of Los Angeles on another road succeeded in reaching Frisco at the rate of about 10 miles an hour. Owing to severe at viets and washouts on railroads across the continent, the train from San Francisco to Chicago pulled into the West City Thursday morning just 18 hours late. Mr. Norpell had been on the train ten days in making the trip, after he finally got started from Los Angeles.

PROCTOR DEAD BY OWN HAND

Cincinnati Millionaire Shoots Himself at His Home.

GRIEVED OVER WIFE'S DEATH

Shipbuilding Company Takes the Offensive Against Strikers and Will Start Work at Lorain—Interurban Line Transferred—Association of School Board Members Meet.

Cincinnati, O., March 29.—At his home in Glendale, a suburb of this city, William A. Proctor, president of the Proctor & Gamble Co., died from a bullet wound, self-inflicted. When announcement was made of his death it was stated that death resulted suddenly, and it did not develop till some hours later that he had shot himself in the head while alone in the bathroom. Coroner Cameron was called and began an investigation of the circumstances of the shooting, and in the meantime refused to make any statement except to say that Mr. Proctor had died from a bullet wound. Mr. Proctor was widely known in business circles and was a prominent layman in the Protestant Episcopal church, to the institutions of which he was a liberal giver. His wealth was estimated at many millions, most of which had been made by himself. He was noted for the co-operative scheme for a division of profits with employees which he had designed for his company. Members of the family later admitted that Mr. Proctor committed suicide by shooting himself in the head while in the bathroom. It is said that Mr. Proctor had been suffering from melancholia ever since the death of his wife, four years ago. He was born in this city 73 years ago.

Addressed by Educators.
Columbus, O., March 29.—The Ohio state association of school board members met here with about 150 delegates in attendance. President William Burns of Coshocton presided. The day was devoted to a discussion of subjects relating to the conduct of the schools and education in general. Among those who participated were State Commissioner of Schools E. A. Jones, President W. O. Thompson of Ohio State University, W. S. Rowe of Greenville, D. Charles Orr of Cleveland and Dr. J. M. Weaver of Dayton. Dr. Weaver in his address deplored the lack of practical education in the work of the home which young women now receive. He would have them trained in cooking and other duties of the housewife.

To Start Work at Lorain.
Lorain, O., March 29.—It is authoritatively stated that the American Shipbuilding company will soon take the offensive in the strike now on and make this city the starting point in the fight. It is said on good authority that orders have come from headquarters at Cleveland to start work here. That the company intends to fight the strikers is shown by the fact that a large number of cots and much bedding and a large amount of tableware and cooking utensils have been taken into the big inclosure. The company, it is said, intends to maintain strike-breakers within the plant.

Back in Old Channel.
Coshocton, O., March 29.—Ten miles east of this city the Tuscarawas river changed its course a number of years ago, causing it to become a constant menace to the approaches of a big steel bridge. Thousands of dollars were spent for levees and piling, but to no avail, and recently it was decided to spend a large sum of money for strengthening the river again. When the late flood subsided it was discovered that the river had cut out its old channel again.

Lake Erie Free of Ice.
Cleveland, March 29.—Navigation between here and Detroit opened auspiciously. The steamer City of Detroit arrived here from Detroit on its first trip of the season, carrying a big cargo of passengers and freight. The steamer was given a noisy welcome at the docks. The officers report that no ice was encountered and that the trip was made without accident and on schedule time.

Line Transferred.
Toledo, O., March 29.—The Toledo & Western railway, Interurban, was sold to the Toledo Railways and Light company. The formal transfer of the Toledo & Western road from the Nutt syndicate to the Rail-Light company was made at a meeting of the directors here. The terms of the sale are not made public.

Threatening Letters.
Niles, O., March 29.—Armed watchmen guard the home of Mrs. Joseph Webster, wife of a wealthy mill owner, who received an anonymous letter threatening the lives of two members of her family, in case she did not send $500 to the writer. Mrs. William Parfitt also received a threatening letter.

First Illness Her Last.
Tiffin, O., March 29.—Mrs. Maria Cole, aged 99 years and 1 month, died at her home in Republic. She was

OUR STRENUOUS LIFE.

Mr. Bryce—Ah, the country of no classes, but all masses.

born in Orange county, New York. Prior to her fatal illness she had never been ill a day and never used glasses. At her death her hair was still dark.

Peasants Are Still Looting

Plaint of Boilermakers.
Cleveland, O., March 29.—Three hundred boilermakers in the employ of the Standard Oil company are on strike here. It is claimed by the strikers that they were compelled to work with nonunion men.

Woman's Rash Deed.

Canton, O., March 29.—Mrs. Della Newcomer, 40, of Minerva, after being refused a divorce from William Newcomer, committed suicide by taking poison.

Farmer's Fate.

Ottawa, O., March 29.—Felix Scheib, a farmer near here, was found hanging head downward in a well on his farm. His foot was caught in the platform surrounding the well, his head was immersed in the water and his hands grasping the pump stalk. He had evidently been in that position several days, and was dead when a neighbor's boy coming on some errand found him. He was 45 years old and a bachelor.

Lost Lover; Suicides.

Canton, O., March 29.—Miss Bertha McNally, 28, committed suicide by taking carbolic acid. Thursday was Miss McNally's birthday. It was also to have been her wedding day. She was to have been married to Emil Knolle, a Pittsburgh policeman. Six weeks ago Knolle was taken with pneumonia and died. Since that time Miss McNally has been despondent.

Independent Telephone Men.

Columbus, O., March 29.—The following officers were elected by the Ohio Independent Telephone Association: President, Frank L. Beam, Mt. Vernon; secretary, O. O. Welshimer; treasurer, Ralph Reamer, Columbus. President Beam in his annual report stated there were now 853 independent exchanges in Ohio and 1,668 toll stations, with 270,720 telephones.

Streetcar Strike.

Montgomery, Ala., March 29.—The Montgomery Traction company gave up efforts to operate cars and streetcar traffic is at a standstill. Of 150 men employed as motormen and conductors, only seven remained with the company, the rest going out on strike. Efforts by Mayor Teague to have the difference settled by a board of arbitration failed, as the general manager of the car lines declared his company would stand pat. The company engaged 90 strike breakers from the east.

ACTION AGAINST 'GREAT NORTHERN ROAD'

St. Paul, March 29.—The legal department of the Great Northern Railway company says it has been served with notice of a suit brought by C. H. Venner of New York, in which he seeks to have the trust agreement between the Great Northern and the Lake Superior company, limited, the holding company of the Hill iron ore interests, declared invalid, and a receiver appointed to take charge of the assets of the Lake Superior company and return them to the Great Northern or dispose of them as directed by the court. So far as could be ascertained the papers in the suit have not been filed in the district court.

To Search For Missing Steamer.

St. Johns, March 29.—The Newfoundland government has arranged with the underwriters and owners of the coast mail steamer Portia to have the vessel search for the sealing steamer Greenland, which with 183 men on board is probably drifting helplessly on the Atlantic.

OPEN SWITCH DERAILS TRAIN

Hundred Persons Killed or Hurt In a Disastrous Wreck.

TEN COACHES LEAVE TRACK

Victims Mostly Italians From New York and New Orleans and Bound For San Francisco—Disaster Occurred Sixty Miles From Los Angeles. Story of the Accident.

Colton, Cal., March 29.—While running 40 miles an hour, westbound passenger train No. 9 on the Southern Pacific ran into an open switch near this place Thursday evening, and 10 of the 14 coaches were derailed and wrecked. Over 100 persons were killed or injured. Nearly 30 persons were killed outright. Most of the dead were Italians from New York and New Orleans. But two Americans are known to have been killed, although several of those among the injured will undoubtedly die. George L. Sharp of Muncie, Ind., was instantly killed. The baggage man of the train, whose name had not been ascertained, was also killed. Engineer Clarence Warrington and Fireman Victor Crebb both jumped and were caught in the wreckage. They were terribly burned and scalded. John Golden, the train conductor, was in the Pullman section of the train, and escaped injury.

The Italians in the day coach and smoker met a horrible fate. Wholly without warning the impact came, and the three forward cars were completely telescoped and hurled to one side. The helpless passengers were terribly torn and cut to pieces. Death came to a score of them instantly. Many were dismembered and impaled upon pieces of the wrecked cars.

Out of about 80 Pullman passengers there were but two who sustained serious injury. The three Pullman coaches and the diner, which were on the rear of the train, did not leave the track. The occupants of these cars were practically unharmed. The Florence Roberts theatrical company occupied one coach, which was hurled from the track and both ends crushed in by impact against the others. But two members of the company out of a total of 22 persons were injured. Miss Roberts herself escaped entirely unhurt. The escape from death of the occupants of this car was remarkable.

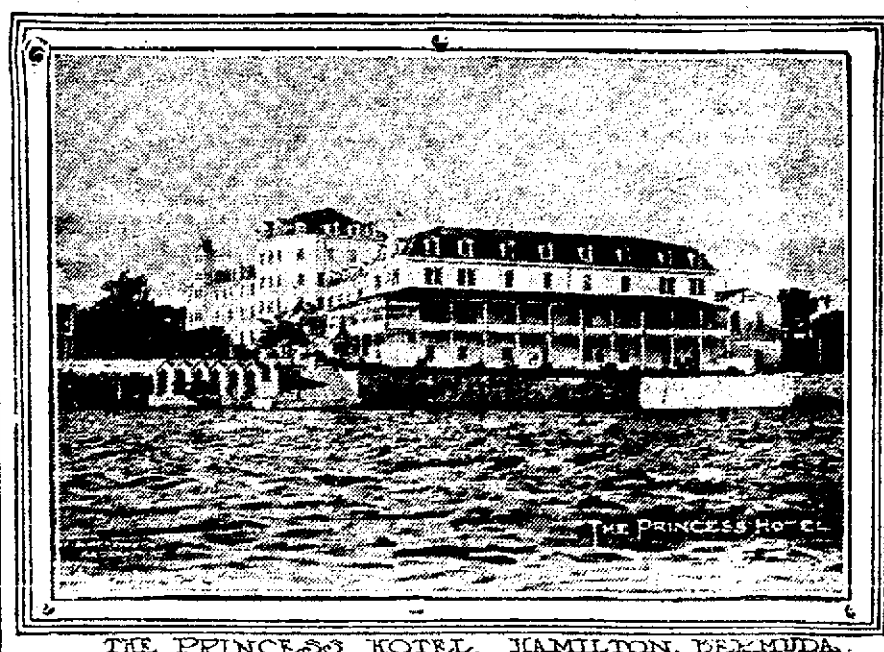

The derailment of the train was caused by the crew of a switch engine leaving a switch open at this point. It is said that the engine passed through the switch a few minutes before the Overland appeared. A switchman named Morrison was in the yard. After the switch engine had passed onto another track the engineer asked the fireman if he had thrown the switch. The fireman recalled that he had neglected to do so, and the engineer whistled frantically for Morrison to close it. The signal was not given in time, as Morrison did not reach the switch before the Overland had plunged through and been derailed.

There were three tracks where the accident occurred, which is in the open country. The people of Colton were first to be notified of the accident. Hundreds of people hurried to the scene of the wreck. Physicians and nurses were brought from San Bernardino and Colton and ministered to the injured.

Destructive Fire.
Ogdensburg, N. Y., March 29.—Fire destroyed the Commercial and McCawley's hotels, four stores and two residences, in Iroquois, Ont. The loss is $100,000.

It's a good thing not to be "a good thing."

AMERICANS ENJOY REST IN BERMUDA.

THE PRINCESS HOTEL, HAMILTON, BERMUDA.

(Special Advocate Correspondence.)
Hamilton, Bermuda, March 19.—Costume balls are in the air here and visitors who intend coming here during the next few weeks will be well advised to bring something startling in the way of fancy dress, as two more dances are scheduled for the future. At the Hamilton Hotel the other evening nearly 400 patrons were entertained, and many of the costumes were admirable. The Princess Hotel, where many American tourists are stopping, has been the scene of much recent gaiety.

FORMER-MAYOR VAN WYCK IN ATTIRE OF A DESERT CHIEFTAIN.

FORMER-MAYOR VAN WYCK IN JERUSALEM.

New York, March 29.—Friends of former Mayor Robert A. Van Wyck, who with Mrs. Van Wyck and her two daughters is traveling in the Holy Land, have received messages telling of an unusually pleasant journey. Photograph postcards received from Jerusalem, represented the former Mayor as a shiek in the picturesque attire of a desert chieftain. They all forded friends of Mr. Van Wyck much amusement.

Their journey was begun in January and has extended through Egypt up the Nile to Assuan, across into Turkey and thence back to the Holy Land. It will be extended to Nice and the Riviera, where an automobile trip will be undertaken which will end at Paris. They will return in May.

POPULATION OF UNITED STATES IS GROWING RAPIDLY

Washington, March 29.—There are now nearly 8,000,000 more people in continental United States than there were six years ago, based upon figures compiled by the census bureau in a special report. According to its estimates the population of continental United States in 1906 was 83,841,510, an increase over 1900 of 7,946,935. The population of the United States inclusive of Alaska and the insular possessions in 1906 was 93,182,240. The five leading cities and estimated population in 1906 are: New York, 4,113,045; Chicago, 2,049,185; Philadelphia, 1,441,735; St. Louis, 649,320; Boston, 602,278.

BY FIRE

Property of the Value of a Million Dollars Is Lapped Up.

Danville, Va., March 29.—A disastrous fire broke out in South Boston, Va., 32 miles northeast of here, and spreading rapidly, destroyed tobacco factories and other buildings, threatened the destruction of the entire town and entailed a loss estimated variously up to $1,000,000. The large plant of the H. J. Reynolds Tobacco company was among the first buildings destroyed. The flames spread to other tobacco factories and other buildings, including the telephone exchange, which was located at quite a distance from the tobacco section, and they were destroyed.

INTERVENTION HAS BEEN DELAYED

Washington, March 29.—The moment has not yet arrived when America and Mexico can intervene to stop the spread of war in Central America. This was the decision arrived at as the result of a conference between Secretary Root and Ambassador Greer at the state department. The secretary also had the benefit of the advice received by the diplomatic representatives of the Central American states from their own governments. The absence of definite information from the seat of trouble is embarrassing to the officials who are desirous of bringing about peace. It is feared that the collapse of the Bunilla government in Honduras and the consequent installation of the provisional government in accord with that of Nicaragua will result in a combined attack by them upon other Central American republics.

Carnegie Attacks Wall Street.

New York, March 29.—Andrew Carnegie made a vigorous attack on certain Wall street methods in a speech at a dinner given in his honor by the United States military telegraph corps. Mr. Carnegie declared that he had never made a dollar gambling in stocks, and added that it was time that business men declined to recognize men who make money in Wall street and render no value for it.

THAW BEFORE COMMISSION

Bombarded With Questions During Two Hours' Secret Session.

HIS ATTORNEYS SATISFIED

Came Out With Colors Flying, According to Lawyer Hartridge—Explains Incidents of the Trial and Other Things—Examination to Be Continued Saturday—Scope of Inquiry.

New York, March 29.—"Harry came out with flying colors. He remembered more about the case than I did. We are confident of the outcome." These were the words of Attorney Hartridge for the defense when questioned about the proceedings before the commission appointed to inquire into the present mental condition of Harry Thaw.

The examination was conducted behind closed doors, and when an adjournment was taken until 10 o'clock Saturday morning no one connected with the hearing before the commissioners would discuss the details of the inquiry. Thaw went willingly and confidently before his judges, and when the two hours' secret session was concluded his attorneys appeared with smiling faces and declared they were more than satisfied with the course of the proceedings. District Attorney Jerome hurried away from the criminal courts building, declining absolutely to say one word about the commission's work.

Thaw's examination was not concluded, and he will appear again before the commission when it meets Saturday morning. The Saturday session also will be held behind closed doors.

Thaw went on the witness stand before the lunacy commissioners, and for nearly two hours answered a running fire of questions. The commissioners alone questioned him, and in response to the most subtle inquiries as to matters touching upon his defense, the meaning of phrases in his letters to counsel, the purport of Justice Fitzgerald's decisions, the method of selecting the jury, his desire for the calling of various witnesses and his purpose in suggesting that certain questions be asked him, it is said, he gave intelligent answers.

The most important feature of the day's proceedings was the decision of the commission to limit the scope of its inquiry to the exact language of the statute—to determine solely the question as to whether or not Harry Thaw is able today to understand the nature of the court proceedings against him and is able to advise his counsel in a rational manner. District Attorney Jerome announced to the members of the commission that all of the legal experts he had employed in the case had advised him that Thaw is suffering from a typical case of

CARBOLIC ACID IS TAKEN BY LYNN MASS. SHOEMAKER

Lynn, Mass., March 29.—Stanley Kennison, a shoemaker, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. Kennison, who had been conversing with friends in a Democratic clubhouse, excused himself for a moment and went to another room, returning very shortly with the announcement, "I've done what Chick Stahl did." He was hurried to a hospital, but died soon after his arrival. The cause of the act is unknown.

$1,000 IN GOLD

For Return of His Boy Offered by Dr. Marvin—Lad Missing For Over Two Weeks.

Dover, Del., March 29.—Dr. Marvin, father of Horace Marvin, 4, who has been missing from his home here for more than two weeks, has deposited $1,000 in gold with the cashier of the local bank which will be paid for the return of the boy.

ORGANIZATION

Perfected by the Trustees of the Nobel Peace Fund.

Washington, March 29.—A permanent organization was perfected by five of the seven trustees of the foundation for the promotion of industrial peace authorized by recent act of congress to take over and administer the $40,000 Nobel peace prize awarded to President Roosevelt. Chief Justice Fuller was elected president, Seth Low treasurer and John Mitchell secretary. Those selected to be members of "the industrial peace committee" of nine, required by the act, are as follows: On the part of the public, Archbishop Ireland, and Marcus N. Marks and Ralph M. Easley of New York; on the part of the employers, E. H. Gary of the United States Steel corporation, Lucius Tuttle, president of Boston & Maine railroad, and J. Gunby Jordan of Columbus, Ga.; on the part of employees, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; Daniel Keefe, president of the Longshoremen's association, and Warren S. Stone, president International Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Their duties are to receive from the trustees the income derived from the Nobel fund and use it in furtherance of the purposes of the organization to arrange for annual conferences in Washington of representatives of capital and labor.

Assaulted and Murdered.

Bristol, Tenn., March 29.—Developments lead to the belief that Little Davis, who was shot in East Hill cemetery, dying an hour later, was assaulted and murdered. Johnson City officials claim that the girl was to have been a witness against a younger brother of Ack Hale, who was with the girl at the time she was shot, in a trial for manslaughter to be called at that place next week. It is reported that the man killed was a brother of the Davis girl.

which the recoveries are limited to 2 or 3 per cent. He offered to adduce testimony to support this statement, but the commission waived it aside, saying that the purpose of the inquiry was a very simple one and had to do not with any classification of mental diseases, but with the prisoner's present state of mind as judged by laymen. In laying down this decision the commission confronted the district attorney with the very position he has maintained in putting Thaw on trial for his life. Mr. Jerome contends that Thaw was suffering from paranoia on the night of June 25 last, when he shot and killed Stanford White, but he added that paranoiacs often have knowledge of what they are doing, and that Thaw knew the nature and quality of his act in killing White and knew that the act was wrong. Thus while medical experts may determine that Thaw is still suffering from paranoia, the question to which the lunacy commission has decided to confine itself deals solely with Thaw's knowledge as to the proceedings against him and his ability to advise his lawyers.

The commission got on its way with a rush and plunged at once into the personal examination of the defendant. District Attorney Jerome protested at first that he was not able to proceed, saying he would like to have his medical advisers present during Thaw's examination. He finally stated he would have no objection to the examination going forward providing he was permitted to reserve his cross-examination. The commission forthwith settled the matter of the presence of the experts by excluding them from the room along with anyone else except the defendant and his counsel, the district attorney and Assistant District Attorney Garvan. As to the cross-examination by the district attorney, the commission said the matter would be taken up when it was reached.

Mrs. McDonald Indicted.
Chicago, March 29.—An indictment charging Mrs. Michael C. McDonald with the murder of Webster S. Guerin was returned by the grand jury. Mrs. McDonald shot Guerin after a quarrel in his office on the morning of Feb. 21.

AMUSEMENTS

THE RED FEATHER

The scenes and costumes for the comic opera, "Red Feather," which will be the important attraction at the Auditorium Monday, April 1, are said to represent an outlay of $12,000. Critical opinion has pronounced the investment to be the most sumptuous and gorgeous ever furnished for the operatic stage.

PROF. CROCKER'S SHOW

The splendid performance of Prof. E. K. Crocker's horse, pony, mule and donkey show at the Auditorium April 3, matinee and night is for the benefit of the Day Nursery. The London, Eng., Daily News has the following to say:

"The spectators found no reason to question the claim of Prof. Crocker to be the possessor of the most wonderful troupe of educated horses that the world has yet beheld. These wonderfully intelligent creatures go through a regular series of performances with little apparent stumblings but the voice of their master, who by these means, aided by a gesture now and then, appears to exercise over them an almost absolute control."

LION AND MOUSE.

"The Lion and the Mouse" will be presented at the Auditorium Thursday, April 4, and one of the greatest dramatic productions of the new century, is one of the latest plays from the pen of Charles Klein, author of "The Music Master," and which recalls that play in popularity. Mr. Klein has selected a theme of big possibilities—that of the influence exerted by the moneyed interests in American politics. John Buckett Rider, the richest man in America, has seen fit to challenge the highest law of the country by the impeachment of a judge of the Supreme court, who has handed down decisions inimicable to the financial interests of him and his coterie of friends. The judge's daughter, in order to save her father from disgrace and poverty, enters the lists, pitting herself and her woman's wit against this money octopus. As may be seen, the dramatic possibilities are enormous and Mr. Klein has lost no opportunity of presenting them in their strongest light. The play is, perhaps, the most successful in America and will be presented by identical the same cast as was seen for three months in Chicago, and 12 weeks in Boston, which company includes Gertrude Coglian, Arthur Byron, Malcolm Duncan, Grace Thorne, Joseph Kilgour, A. S. Linman, Mabel Mortimer, Edith Shayne, William H. Burton, Christine Blessing, Edward See, Eliza Mason, P. S. Barrett and Ada Curry.

KERMESS AT AUDITORIUM.

The Kermess which was given its second and closing performance at the Auditorium Thursday night for the benefit of the public school supplementary book fund, was fairly well attended. The entertainment was highly pleasing in every sense. The three hundred children all working together with beauty and precision.

THOUSAND STUDENTS OF PRINCETON GIVE LOVING CUP TO MR. CLEVELAND.

LOVING CUP PRESENTED TO GROVER CLEVELAND

Princeton, N. J., March 29.—A group of 1,000 hopeful, aspiring undergraduates of Princeton university, looking for a way to honor their nearly a thousand strong, presented to Grover Cleveland a loving cup in honor of his 70th birthday, recently passed. In return Mr. Cleveland made a speech of the kindest sentiments, saying he felt young at 70 because he "breathed the atmosphere of Princeton. When it is considered that 600 children were used in the two performances and that but two weeks were consumed in drilling them it is a wonderful bit of work on the part of the instructor, Mrs. Weller, who has been engaged in this work for the past 30 years.

"THE SILVER BOX"

New York, March 29.—The critics continue to print their opinions of Miss Ethel Barrymore and the new play "The Silver Box," in which she assumes a character role that is a decided departure from the parts in which a public has been accustomed to see her. One of the latest review says: "Few of our American actresses have the charm of Miss Barrymore. She has shown that she has control with the personal 'pull' but she had on her audience, was anxious to bring in and deepen her ability. At times her mannerisms are too pronounced but with the right intention it is possible that these might be overcome."

MISS ETHEL BARRYMORE IN "THE SILVER BOX"

DOG COLLAR STOLEN

Mr. John Moore of the Citizens' Building Association, reports that his valuable dog, after a visit to the west end of the city, returned home minus his collar and the tag attached thereto, number 91.

The dog did not seem to mind the loss of the certificate of the registry, and upon being questioned by Mr. Moore as to where the loss probably occurred, absolutely refused to shed any light on the matter.

What Mr. Moore wants to know is, how the party that removed this collar, know what the penalty is for doing that?

FOOD POISONS

90 Per Cent of All Diseases the Result of Undigested Putrefying Foods

Men of affairs, women of society and children with active brains are too often sedentary in their habits, giving little time to exercise. To this evil is added that of high and irregular living—as a result, the stomach cannot stand the demands made upon it. The abused and overtaxed stomach does not properly do the work of digestion, food taken in ferments and the poison permeates the whole system. The body loses in weight and becomes a prey for the attack of whatever disease it may encounter.

Did it ever occur to you how busy that stomach of yours is? It only holds three pints, but in one year you force it to take in 2,400 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation into the blood. No wonder it rebels when overworked. We crowd it with steaks and pastry, irritate its juices with spices and acids, and expect the stomach to do its work. It can't do it.

All over the inner layer of the stomach are glands which secrete the juices necessary to digestion. The entrance of food into the stomach is the signal for these glands to do their work. The more the food, and the more indigestible, the greater the demand upon them and upon the muscles of the wall adjoining.

Think of the tons of high-seasoned game, sweetmeats and appetizers crammed into this little four-ounce mill, and then wonder, if you will, why you are dizzy or nauseated or constipated. Don't blame your stomach or curse your fate that you should be born so unfortunate. Blame yourself and apply the remedy.

First, get a small package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, taking one after each meal and at bedtime. They are not a medicine, but a digestive. Your stomach is worn out and needs help, not medicine. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do the work that the stomach fails to do. There's enough power in one grain of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to digest 3,000 grains of ordinary food, so you needn't fear that anything you eat will remain in your stomach undigested.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will rout the poison because they remove the cause—food fermentation. They are nature's own cure for dyspepsia. The host of troubles dyspepsia is father of cannot be numbered, for a healthy stomach is the source of all health.

CLAY LICK.

Whether Clay Lick will have Sunday baseball this season or not is the question here in which much interest is centering. Truth to tell, it is being discussed by all. A number of the ultra religious people have declared in no uncertain terms that no Sunday baseball will be permitted, while the local baseball fans of whom there are many, have declared just emphatically there will be. The present mayor, who last year not only permitted games on Sunday, but witnessed many of them, thus far has not made known how he stands as to the question. It is strongly suspected, however, that the supporters of baseball on Sunday will have permission to play.

Mrs. Alva Drumm, ill of tuberculosis for several months, is no better. That she will regain her health is the wish of all.

The Specialist on Fits.

A physician who had been called to see a patient, not being certain about his diagnosis, looked very wise and said to the family that he would call again the next day. But the next day did not clear up matters any, so the family became anxious for a cure. The physician said that he could give the patient something to give him fits. ## "Bring Me A Good Cigar"

Recently a State Senator on a dining car asked the waiter to bring him "a cigar." The waiter brought two boxes—one was a Triangle A cigar, and the other an unknown brand.

"Which is the better?" asked the Senator. The waiter recommended the unknown brand. "Why?" the Senator demanded. The waiter grinned. "Boss says that's the one to push," he said.

You don't want to depend on what "the boss" wants to push—you'd rather choose for yourself.

How do you know a good cigar?

You can now buy cigars with the maker's guarantee on every box—a mark of merit that distinguishes scientific methods systematically applied to cigar production—a mark that stands for improved quality—better, riper tobacco, thoroughly matured and actually blended—smooth, even-smoking cigars, absolutely clean—without increased cost.

Whatever you pay, whatever your taste, the "A" (Triangle A) mark is your guarantee of superior and reliable quality and unquestionable value.

YE COUNTRY EDITOR.
By Byron Williams.

The editor sat in his sanctum,
With woe in his long, tangled hair;
His brow was a riot of wrinkles,
His face wore the pall of despair!

His heart, like a mountainous burden,
Lay sluggishly still in his breast;
His breath came in labored heaving sobs,
That told of a sorrow suppressed!

The foreman reported a break-down,
The devil got caught in the press;
The gasoline engine exploded,
The ad-type fell into the mess!

The paper got onto the rollers,
The cogs jumped the track of the bed;
The folder it riddled the issue,
The tape ran across the new head!

The creditors called with the sheriff,
The fire-fighter got in the game!

TOBOSO.

Mrs. Eve Lake was pleasantly surprised Monday by a number of her friends and neighbors calling with well filled baskets to help celebrate her 74th birthday anniversary. The day was a happy one for grandma, and many times she would exclaim, "I am so happy to have my good friends and neighbors with me today." Everyone present enjoyed the occasion and all wish her many happy returns of the day. The principal feature of the affair was the splendid dinner served at noon after which the crowd was shown through the Everett stone quarry by Mr. James Lake. Grandma received several nice and useful presents.

Protracted meeting closed at this place Sunday night with two accessions to the church.

Misses Mary and Ida Cheek and Rev. Robert Bowden were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Haworth Sunday.

Mrs. Vann and little son Leland, of Pataskala, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. James Brill and family.

Miss Adah Brill of Newark attended church here Sunday evening.

Mr. George Cheek left Sunday night for Cadiz Junction where he will be employed in the concrete works for the Pennsylvania company.

Miss Margie Lake is the guest of friend near Gratiot.

Mrs. Belle Harris of Gratiot and Wainwright's Experiment.

By Constance D'Arcy Mackay.

Copyright, 1907, by M. M. Cunningham.

It was noon. The July sun blazed down over the hayfields and flickered across the group of men who lolled beneath the trees enjoying their first rest after a morning of toil. Wainwright sat a little apart from the others and mopped his forehead. The muscles of his arms and shoulders ached from unaccustomed labor. Yet as he looked at the close cut field his feeling was one of pleasure.

Two months before as assistant professor of political economy in an eastern college he had longed to put certain problems to the test, to learn from actual experience those things which other men were content to take from the text books. So while his brother professors spent their vacations in Europe or at the seashore Wainwright tramped the highways of New England, knapsack on back and notebook in hand. Routine and conventionality were forgotten. And so much is man a part of his mode of living that after his first two weeks on the road not one of Wainwright's old confreres would have recognized him. His clothes had lost their hall marks of good tailoring and become frayed and dusty. His

"PLEASE DON'T STOP!" SHE CRIED.

Shoes were out at heel, his hat almost rimless and his face tanned to a deep bronze.

But Wainwright was young and vigorous and had a keen relish for adventure. He liked the freedom of the highway, the quest of picking up odd jobs at the scattered farmhouses, along the route, the deep sleep of the travel weary in dim, sweet scented haylofts or, oftener still, in the open, with the stars shimmering through the branches of the trees.

It was the harvest season. There was work in plenty, and in time Wainwright quitted his hand to mouth vagabondage for the sobering occupation of harvester on the Rolfe farm, where he was to receive a dollar a day and bed and board. The first morning's labor had proved more exhausting than he had anticipated, but Wainwright kept on doggedly, though each hour added fresh blisters to his hands and made the scythe seem heavier to wield. The midday rest brought an ecstasy of relief.

"This," thought Wainwright as he stretched himself in the shade—"this is worth a dozen hotel verandas!" The rustle of leaves, the talk of the men near by and the drone of insects through the warm air all blended into a confused murmur. An unconquerable drowsiness stole over him.

"Won't you have some dinner?" said a voice beside him, and Wainwright, opening his eyes, looked up at a girl who might have been Priscilla, so demure was her blue dress and white kerchief. She wore a frilled sunbonnet, and Wainwright wished that he might see the face it hid, but his desire remained ungratified, for after serving him the girl turned her attention to the next man and from that went impartially down the line. The men fell to at once. Wainwright alone stared after the sunbonneted figure that tripped across the field and took the orchard path leading to the Rolfe farm.

That night as he took his seat among the harvesters that clattered around the Rolfe's supper table he saw with quickening interest that the girl of the noon hour was flitting about the kitchen, passing huge platters of bread and stone jugs of foaming milk. Wainwright had leisure to observe that she had brown eyes and wavy brown hair coiled low upon her neck.

When supper was over the other farm hands strolled off toward the barn. Wainwright lingered.

"Your daughter must be a great help to you," he ventured.

"My daughter?" laughed Farmer Rolfe. "Why, she ain't my daughter! She's the hired girl, though I will say, he added, "that if ever I'd had a daughter I'd ha' liked one like Mary Carter. She's as quick and handy as she can be, and my wife thinks a heap o' her. Took to her from the first when the girl come from over by Coopersville way lookin' for work. She's so slim and bright you wouldn't think she could do much. But, land, she's a hustler!" Indeed, so absorbed was Mary in her work that Wainwright only saw her at mealtimes. Even then she merely stopped for a pleasant word or nod.

But one Sunday night when Wainwright sat alone in the back porch strumming at a guitar a white dress glimmered in the doorway, and presently Mary came out and sat down.

"Please don't stop," she cried as Wainwright smothered the last chord of a college glee. "I'm very fond of music!"

"What else are you fond of, I wonder?" thought Wainwright, and he deftly led her on to speak of herself. She was fond of reading, she confessed, and knew many of the poets by heart. Her taste in literature was as shapely as it was fine, and the more she spoke the more Wainwright wondered, for she seemed utterly content with her present occupation.

"Any work that is done well is beautiful," she declared earnestly, and though her allusions to herself were delicately reticent, Wainwright found it easy to picture her primitive life, primitive and yet not humdrum. Her love of nature and beauty forbade that.

"What a wonderful country it is," mused Wainwright, "where even the rusties have ideas of their own and a vivid way of expressing them." Mary's personality was the most challenging and illuminating one that he had discovered so far, and descriptions of her covered several pages of his notebook.

In the days that followed he found that if he helped Mary with the supper dishes the longer they would have to sit on the porch in the cool of the evening. So while she splashed the suds he polished plates and cups and quoted his favorite authors. Afterward they would stroll together down the orchard path, watching the first stars and listening to the eerie notes of the whippoorwill, a pleasant state of affairs destined to end abruptly, for Wainwright returned from the fields one evening to find Mrs. Rolfe alone in the kitchen. Mary was gone.

"I had a letter from one of her folks," said the farmer, "and she went right off. Wouldn't take a cent of her pay 'cause she left so sudden."

Wainwright looked blank.

"Didn't she leave any address?" he queried.

"Said she'd write," answered Rolfe laconically.

"But wasn't there any message?" persisted Wainwright.

"Not a word," said Farmer Rolfe cheerfully.

Mrs. Rolfe had some of her famous biscuits for supper, but Wainwright had lost his appetite. He stood on the back porch in the afterglow, and everything seemed strangely deserted. Mary had gone, and something of the joy of living had gone with her. Existence seemed suddenly very tame and dull to the young professor. He was conscious of emotions not classified in his notebook.

"I must have overworked," he said listlessly to himself as he sat on the Leffingwells' veranda a week later. It was sundown. A breeze swept up from the Hudson, and a tall glass of lemonade tinkled pleasantly in Wainwright's hand.

Mrs. Leffingwell, of whose house party he was a guest, sat near him in a wicker chair and chatted irrepressibly.

"We've had an inkling of your exploits," she said, "and will expect a full account of them. Tonight there's a girl coming to dine who's awfully fond of that sort of thing. She spent the summer working on a farm where she met the most extraordinary young harvester that—There she is now!"

Mary, in a white lace dress, was coming slowly across the lawn.

"You didn't leave me any message," said Wainwright reproachfully the moment after their hostess had left them alone together, "but I have one for you. I wonder if you will care to hear it?"

"You might try and see," suggested Mary demurely.

When dinner was at its gayest, Mrs. Leffingwell turned to Wainwright.

"Do you think," she said, "that your experiment was a success?"

Wainwright's eyes met Mary's in a comprehending flash.

"The greatest I've ever had," he answered, smiling.

A Curious Bird Mistake.

Many birds frequenting flowers for honey or insects are thus liable to get their heads covered with pollen. And since the pollen of different flowers varies in color, a bird may become yellow headed, red headed, blue headed, etc., says the London Globe. This led to a curious mistake in the case of a New Zealand bird. This bird was a honey sucker and a haunter of flowers. Now, in the early summer it visited most frequently the flowers of the native flax and later in the year fed chiefly on the fuchsia. The pollen of the former is red and of the latter blue; hence in the early summer the bird appeared with a red head and was named the red headed honey sucker. But when later in the year it went to the fuchsia its head was stained blue, and it was called the blue headed honey sucker. Thus for a long time this bird was thought to be two distinct species and only recently was it found that the red headed and the blue headed were one and the same and that the real color of the head was blackish brown.

The Queen of Spiders.

The queen of spiders—the largest, handsomest and most capable workman of her tribe—is the orange-yellow and black creature known as orange argiope. It is the most beautiful cobwebs made, hung low to catch the innumerable insects required for a rather large appetite, and you find them among the bushes and vines and in the fields. Argiope captures and ties up her victims as ably as a cowboy might do with a lasso, and she excels the cowboy by manufacturing her own rope as she goes.

Complies with all requirements of the National Pure Food Law, Guarantee No. 2041, filed at Washington.

COMING HOME FROM TOWN

"We dined in some of the finest hotels and restaurants, but did not find any coffee to excel in quality Arbuckles' ARIOSA."

That is what one lady writes and millions of others prove they believe, by using more Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee than all the other packaged coffees in the United States put together.

The fact that Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee costs less and has suited the health and taste of most American people for over 37 years, ought to induce everybody to at least sample it.

The cities hide many country girls and boys who secretly sigh for a cup of good coffee like "mother" made. "Mother" probably used the old original "Arbuckles" the first roasted packaged coffee.

See that you get the sealed package, one pound full weight, bearing the name ARBUCKLES' ARIOSA COFFEE and the signature of Arbuckle Brothers, which entitles you to presents.

That is the genuine article, no matter where you buy it or what price you pay for it.

Same old Coffee, same old firm.

If your grocer won't supply, write to ARBUCKLE BROS., NEW YORK CITY.

S.S.S. PURIFIES THE BLOOD

As every part of the body is dependent on the blood for nourishment and strength, it is necessary that this vital fluid be kept free from germs, impurities and poisons. As long as it remains uncontaminated we are fortified against disease and health is assured; but any humor or impurity acts injuriously on the system and affects the general health, or culminates in some special blood disease. Pustular eruptions, pimples, rashes and the different skin affections show that the blood is in a feverish and diseased condition as a result of too much acid, or the presence of some irritating humor. Sores and Ulcers are the result of morbid, unhealthy matter in the blood, and Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood diseases that continue to grow worse as long as the impurity or poison remains in the circulation. Some persons are born with an hereditary taint in the blood and we see the effect manifested in various ways. The skin has a pallid, waxy appearance, the eyes are weak, glands in the neck often enlarged and usually the body is not fully developed or strong, because it has always been fed on weak, impure blood. In all blood troubles S. S. S. has proved itself a perfect remedy. It goes down into the circulation and removes all poisons, humors, waste or foreign matter, and makes this stream of life pure and health-sustaining. Nothing reaches inherited blood troubles like S. S. S.; it removes every particle of taint, purifies and strengthens the weak, deteriorated blood, supplies it with the healthful properties it needs and establishes the foundation for good health. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison and all blood diseases and disorders are cured permanently by S. S. S. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, and is the King of all blood purifiers. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free.

GRANVILLE NEWS

Granville, March 29.—A highly interesting declamation contest was held on Tuesday by the three under classes of the High school, at which the following interesting program was carried out:

Songs—Easter Song.
Bright Easter Skies.
"Dienkelspiel on Football"—Jimmie Thompson.

"The Song of the Market-place"—Hazel James.

Song—Fought and Won in the Battle.

"How He Saved St. Michael's"—Owen Cook.

"The Missionary Man's Eyes"—Sara Graves.

Song—Heidelberg (Stein Song).

"Jim Wolfe and the Cats"—Ralph Morrow.

"Mrs. Smart Learns to Skate"—Mable Moore.

Song—Message of the Violets.

"Uncle Reuben's Baptists"—Lawrence Wright.

"The Bell of Art"—Una Ackley.

"Buying the Cow"—Paul Morrow.

Song—Tale of the Seashell.

"In the Sea Islands"—Emily Spencer.

"Circus Day, Hurrah!"—Walter Wright.

"Aunt Melissa on Boys"—Bessie Polwine.

Song—Kentucky Bye.

The Juniors were represented by Bessie Polwine, Sara Graves, Paul Morrow and Walter Wright, the Sophomores by Mabel Moore, Hazel James, Owen Cook and Lawrence Wright, the Freshmen by Una Ackley, Emily Spencer, Jimmie Thompson and Ralph Morrow.

The judges, Prof. C. D. Coons, Prof. Warren Roberts and Miss Grace Henley, awarded first place to Sara Graves, second to Emily Spencer, and third to Bessie Polwine, thus giving the Juniors a pronounced victory.

The High school seniors selected the members who are to appear on commencement day at a meeting this week. The class numbers 11 this year, and six were chosen to speak. Homer Holler, Rachel Jones, Mamie Geach, Payson Linnet, Jane Williams and Irene Richards. Commencement day this year falls on the sixth of June.

Mr. Erie Lyons, a former well known resident of Granville, died at his home in Pleasantville, O., on the T. & O. C. R. R., on last Saturday night. For several years past he had held the position of operator and agent at Pleasantville. He had been afflicted with lung trouble for a long time but only a short time before his death he seemed to be in unusually good spirits and in the enjoyment of better health than he had had for some time. He was aged about 35 years and is survived by his widow. The body was taken to Columbus and the funeral services were held from the home of his wife's mother, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the interment was made in Green Lawn cemetery. The deceased is survived by one brother, Bert Lyons, train master of the T. & O. C. R. R., and Miss Anna Lyons of this place. Mr. Lyons' mother died at her home in Granville only a short time ago.

Friday, March 29, being Good Friday a short litany service was held in the St. Luke's Episcopal church at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. This afternoon from 3 to 5 the church will be open for prayer and meditation. At 4 o'clock Mr. G. C. Dickinson will give an address to those present on the significance of the day. Regular services will be held on Easter Sunday at 3 o'clock, commemorating the Resurrection.

On Wednesday afternoon the members of the Travelers' club entertained the members of the Fortnightly club with a banquet in the parlors of the Presbyterian church, which was largely attended and was greatly enjoyed by all who were present. While several men were engaged in installing an electric motor in the machine shop of Science Hall on Wednesday evening, it fell to the floor a distance of ten or twelve feet, injuring two of the men. The motor was considerably damaged by the fall.

CARPENTERS WAGE SCALE.

The following scale of wages has been adopted by Local Union 136 of Carpenters of Newark, beginning April 1st, 1907, and ending March 31, 1908:

The minimum scale shall be thirty-seven and one-half cents (37 1-2) per hour, and eight (8) hours shall constitute a day's work.

For hand dressing all hard wood floors, it shall be fifty (50) cents per hour and eight (8) hours per day.

The apprentices' scale shall be fifteen cents (15) per hour for the first year, twenty (20) cents per hour for the second year, twenty-five (25) cents per hour for third year, thirty (30) cents per hour for fourth year, and an eight (8) hour day.

Time and half for overtime and double time for Sundays and legal holidays.

Adopted by Local Union 136 of Carpenters of Newark.
Newark, O., Jan. 22, 1907. 20d10t

COSHOCOTON MEMORIAL DAY.

Coshocoton, O., March 29.—At the meeting of the G. A. R. the organization received the report that the committee on speakers had secured two orators to be here on Memorial day for addresses. One is Hon. Frank Ashman of Columbus, and the other is Miss Sadie Agnew, a niece of Theo. Agnew of this city. Miss Agnew at present fills a Presbyterian pulpit at Alexandria, Tenn., and is an evangelist of note.

YOUNG OPERATOR CAN'T GIVE BOND

Coshocoton, March 29.—Kelly Miller will be arraigned before Squire M. W. Wimmer Friday on the charge of causing Corn Bonell to take poisonous drugs. He has been unable to secure bond in the sum of $2,500 and still remains in the county jail. He has retained Attorney Kurtz of Zanesville and Howard E. Hahn of this city to defend him.

ORGANIZE A NEW CAMP.

Coshocoton, O., March 29.—Camp John Miller, Sons of Veterans, was organized here Thursday night. Fifty-nine members were mustered in by A. D. Schlegel of New Philadelphia. Jesse Rodgers was elected captain; E. C. Compton, first lieutenant, and Joe W. Thompson, second lieutenant.

STRIKE BIG WELL NEAR DANVILLE, O.

Danville, O., March 29.—The farmers and other residents of this neighborhood are considerably excited at the present time over a big oil well which was drilled here Thursday night. The owners say the well is good for 150 barrels natural, and every bit of farm land is being leased at high prices.

JOHNSTOWN NEWS

Johnstown, March 29.—A personal encounter occurred upon our streets between Hayes Johnson and his nephew Jesse Johnson, resulting in their arrest. They were taken before Mayor Mattingly charged with fighting to which both pleaded guilty and were each fined by the Mayor. Later Jesse Johnson was arrested on a peace warrant by Hayes Johnson's son, Willie. The case was called for hearing before L. J. Bottenfield, justice of the peace, Wednesday. He not being able to hear the case at that time continued the case until Friday.

The regular monthly stock sale was held on Friday, March 29, and was largely attended.

Dr. C. W. Edmunds, a son-in-law of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Lathrop, arrived here Saturday. Mrs. Edmunds and baby have been here at the home of her parents for several weeks past. Dr. Edmunds has recently accepted the chair of therapeutics in Washington University. He and his family will make their future home in Seattle, Washington.

At the meeting of Center Lodge of Masons to be held this Friday evening the E. A. and M. M. degrees will be conferred. Arrangements have been made for having a good time.

Rev. D. C. Kite and wife shipped their household goods to Kirkersville where they will make their future home during his pastorate at that place. They have many friends here who regret their leaving our midst, as their stay here has resulted in great good.

Murray Wilson of Thornville, is moving on the Milton Wright farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wolfe have moved from the rooms over Baker & Payne's store to the dwelling near the depot, recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John Brown.

At the last meeting of the Odd Fellows of this place the second degree was conferred on one candidate.

MARION SOLDIERS MUSTERED OUT

Marion, O., March 29.—The last vestige of D company, Fourth O. N. G., disappeared Thursday when Major Becht of the First Infantry appeared to muster out the local command and Colonel Freeman, superintendent of the state arsenal, left for home after having shipped all of the disbanded company's equipment to state headquarters.

SUNRAY GAS RANGES

THE QUALITY KIND

Will Do Your Baking for 1 Cent an Hour
And will insure a Hot Oven, a Low Gas Bill
And a Contented Housewife

If you are looking for a good Gas Range, buy a SUNRAY, it will bring sunshine to your kitchen work. Guaranteed to be first-class in every respect. SUNRAYS are not the lowest priced but the cheapest

Important Points on Sunray Ranges

Double steel body, polished blue steel outside, cold rolled steel inside, with asbestos between. They are full asbestos lined—not the bargain counter full asbestos lined, which consists of a sheet of asbestos paper pasted with silicate around the oven only, and a body made of stovepipe iron, but a Double Wall of Heavy Steel from top to bottom with asbestos board between. One piece cored cast iron burner, drilled. No cement to work loose and spoil the burner. Oven bottoms made of steel cast iron and asbestos combined, giving very best results. All gas cocks have removable tips and can be changed to burn any kind of gas in a few moments with but little trouble. Sunrays are sold under a positive guarantee to give satisfaction or money refunded.

Elevated Oven—The Ladies' Favorite

The illustration shows the latest model Sunray Range, and is proving deservedly popular with everyone fortunate enough to possess one.

The principal feature of this range is the elevated oven and boiler, which is made of heavy double polished sheet steel and equipped with two large burners, one at the top for boiling and one at the bottom for baking. Inside dimensions are 20 inches long, 14 inches wide and 12 inches high.

The Lower Oven is a Regular 18-Inch Oven Equipped with Drop Door.

This range, as well as all other Sunray Ranges, is equipped with many little labor-saving devices that appeal to the housewife.

The Sunray Range is a decidedly handsome stove, made from the very best of material by experts, and is not excelled as a fuel-saver. Corner-pieces, door frames, and name-plate are of polished nickel, producing a pleasing effect. Sunray Ranges are lined throughout with asbestos cardboard and possess many other special features not found in any other make.

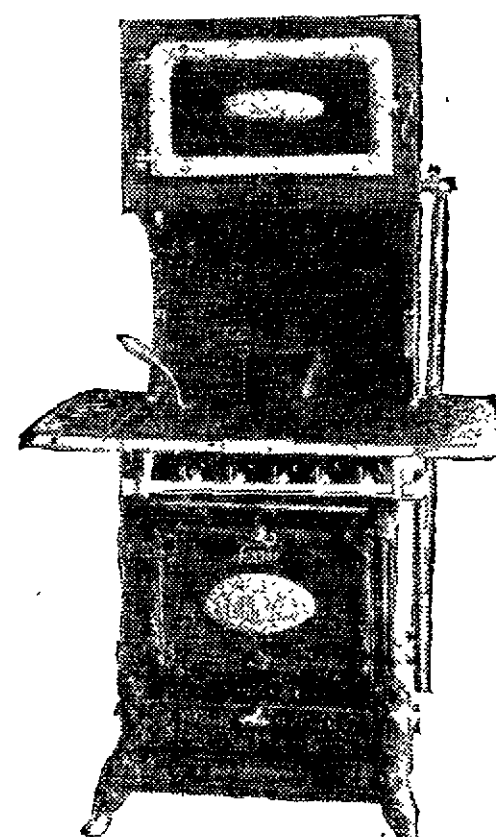

A cordial invitation is extended to every housewife in Newark to call and inspect these ranges. They must be seen to be appreciated.

We are the sole agents for these stoves in this city, and with everyone sold we not only give the guarantee of the makers as given below, but we also give our personal guarantee that they will give perfect satisfaction in every way.

A Guarantee That Is Not Hedged About by a Lot of Conditions that Make It Worthless.

We hereby authorize every dealer selling Sunray Gem Heaters and Ranges, to guarantee they will be economical in the use of gas; will not make any odor in the room, or sweat the windows, or wall, and that they will heat their full rated capacity, and if any Sunray Stove sold does not meet these conditions, the dealer may take it back and refund the money paid for it and we will stand any reasonable expense in connection with such transaction.

These stoves were sold in several other stores last season, but we now have the exclusive sale and the new 1907 improved models will be shown only at our store.
